[OFFICIAL.]

WASHINGTON, May 30—9:20 A. M.

Maj.-Gen. Dix:

No official dispatches from the Army of the Potomac have been received since my telegram of Saturday evening.

A telegram from Gen. Sherman, dated near Dallas, yesterday, 29th, 7:30 A. M., reports that on Saturday an engagement took place between the enemy and McPherson's corps, in which the rebels were driven back, with a loss to them of twenty-five hundred killed and wounded left in our hands, and about three hundred prisoners, Gen. McPherson's loss being not over three hundred in all.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

News from Gen. Grant—News up to 2 O'clock P. M. of Sunday—Our Army Advancing—Severe Cavalry Fight—The Enemy Driven a Mile—Our Loss Three Hundred and Fifty—Rebel Killed and Wounded in Our Hands.

WASHINGTON, Monday, May 30.

Maj.-Gen. Dix:

A dispatch from Gen. Grant has just been received. It is dated yesterday, 29th, at Hanovertown, and states that

The army has been successfully crossed over the Pamunky, and now occupies a front about three miles south of the river. Yesterday two divisions of our cavalry had a severe engagement with the enemy south of Harves' store, driving him about a mile upon what appears to be his new line. We will find out all about it to-day.

Our loss in the cavalry engagement was three hundred and fifty killed and wounded, of whom but forty-four are ascertained to have been killed. We having driven the enemy, most of their killed and many of their wounded fell into our hands.

Another official dispatch, dated yesterday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, details the movements of the several corps then in progress, but up to that time there was no engagement,

Earlier dispatches from headquarters had been sent, but they failed to reach Washington.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

THE LATEST.

No Additional News from Gens. Grant or Sherman — Gen. Grant Reinforced by Gen. Smith—News from Gen. Canby.

[OFFICIAL.]

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, Monday, May 30—10 P. M.

To Major-Gen. Dix:

No intelligence later than has heretofore been transmitted to you has been received by the Department from Gen. Grant or Gen. Sherman.

A portion of Gen. Butler's forces at Bermuda Hundred, not required for defensive operations there, has been transferred, under command of Gen. Smith, to the Army of the Potomac, and is supposed by this time to have formed a junction.

No change in the command of the Department of Virginia has been made. Gen. Butler remains in full command of the Department of Virginia and North Carolina, and continues at the head of his force in the field.

Dispatches from Gen. Canby have been received to-day. He is actively engaged in re-supplying the the troops brought back by Gen. Steele and Gen. Banks, and organizing the forces of the West Mississippi Division, which now comprehends the Department of Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana. Gens. Rosecrans, Steele and Banks remain in command of their respective departments, under the order of Gen. Canby, as Division Commander, his military relations being the same as that formerly exercised by Gen. Grant, and now exercised by Gen. Sherman, over the Departments of the Ohio, the Cumberland and the Tennessee.

The Whole Grand Army in Motion for Richmond—Gen. Sheridan Scouring the Country for Rebels.

PHILADELPHIA, Monday, May 30.

The Inquirer has the following:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
EN ROUTE FOR RICHMOND, VIA HANOVER FERRY,
May 27—6 o'clock A. M.

The whole army is again in motion. The glorious old Second (Gen. Hancock's) Corps, is in advance, followed by Gen. Wright's corps.

Gen. Warren is joining us, having brought up our rear, on our former right wing, over the North Anna. Gen. Burnside will cross at County Bridge, and will bring up our rear. The army moves with a celerity never known before. We will make twenty miles before night.

Gen. Sheridan is ahead of us, scouring the country for rebels.

Lee evidently thought up to the last that we were going to turn his left and give him battle on the north side of the South Anna, but he is outgeneraled, and by night we will be within four hours' march of Richmond. Once getting Lee snugly ensconced in his works, away we go round his flank and into his rear.

The whole country through which we are marching is planted with nothing hardly but corn. Pasture is very fine, and our army sweeps before it all forage and supplies to be found.

Horses, cattle, mules, contrabands, etc., all fall into our huge train.

Arrival of Rebel Prisoners.

WASHINGTON, Monday, May 30.

The Star has the following:

"Six hundred and thirty-five rebel privates and twenty-two officers arrived here yesterday morning from Port Royal, on the steamer Dictator. The privates were not taken from the vessel, but sent to Point Lookout, and the officers were committed to the Old Capitol. Several attempts were made to escape by jumping overboard, while the Dictator was lying at the wharf, but all were frustrated, and no one escaped."

Reinforcements for Grant.

FORT MONROE, Sunday, May 29.

The Eighteenth Army Corps and some regiments of the Tenth Corps are coming down the James River. Ten steamers loaded with troops have already passed here, and gone up the York River.

There has been no fighting at the front for several days. There is no news.

Upward of two hundred sick arrived to-day from Bermuda Hundred, on the S. W. Express, and are received at Hampton Hospital.

The mail boat John A. Warner, Capt. Cone, has arrived from Bermuda Hundred, and reports no fighting there to-day.

From West Virginia.

MARTINSBURGH, Va., Monday, May 30.

The scout sent out by Gen. Kelly, by order of Gen. Sigel, has returned, being entirely successful in its operations, giving important information and capturing thirty-six prisoners, eighty-five horse and forty head of cattle. The notorious Maj. Triplets is reported among the prisoners.

A Sad Tragedy.

BALTIMORE, Monday, May 30.

This afternoon an intoxicated man, named Jas. Riley, fired a pistol at David E. Lankford, of the Eastern Shore Maryland Volunteers, who died in a few minutes. All the citizens and soldiers pursued Riley, and firing upon him, killed him instantly. The affair has created considerable excitement in the western section of the city, where it occurred.

Belle Boyd Released.

BOSTON, Monday, May 30.

Belle Boyd, the female rebel spy, has been released from custody by order of the War Department. She will proceed to Canada if she does not go back to Richmond.

The Overland Mail—Important Instructions.

The Postmaster of this city has received the following official instructions concerning the mail matter by the overland route westward:

POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT, APPOINTMENT OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, May 28, 1864.

SIR: Your attention is particularly called to the fourth section of the act to provide for carrying the mails from the United States to foreign ports, and for other purposes, approved March 5, 1864, which provides "that all mailable matter, conveyed by mail westward beyond the western boundary of Kansas and eastward from the eastern boundary of California, shall be subject to prepaid letter postage rates. Provided, however, that this section shall not be held to extend to the transmission by mail of newspapers from a known office of publication to bona fide subscribers, not exceeding one copy to each subscriber, * * * at the usual rates, nor to properly franked matter."

Your will perceive by the foregoing that all the mail matter, except one newspaper to a bona fide subscriber and franked matter, must be prepaid at letter rates to entitle it to transmission through the mails by the overland route, between the points indicated.

The Postmaster-General directs that you be particular in enforcing this law at your office, and see that nothing is sent forward through the mails except in conformity with its provisions. The Postmaster at St. Joseph, Missouri, will be instructed to withdraw from the mails all matter coming to his office not prepaid in accordance with the provisions of this law.

I am respectfully, your obedient servant,
ST. JOHN B. L. SKINNER,
Acting First Assistant Postmaster-General.
ABRAM WAKEMAN, Esq., Postmaster, New-York.

Arrivals in the City.

Gen. P. S. G. Cook, U. S. Army; Capt. J. M. Allis, New-Orleans; Wm. Glascow, St. Louis; W. H. Goodwin, U. S. Navy; and James Sykes, Washington, are at the Metropolitan Hotel.

The Lousiana Delegation to the Baltimore Convention, consisting of eight members, Cuthbert Bullitt, Esq., Chairman; Ex-Assistant Secretary of War, Thomas A. Scott, Philadelphia; and E. W. Gantt, and family of Arkansas, are at the Fifth-avenue.

Rev. Bishop Ames and lady, Ohio; H. R. Murray, A. D. C., Wis. O. Volunteers, and C. F. Bennett, Louisville, Ky., are at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

Miss Major Pauline Cushman, recently released from her captivity in the hands of the rebels in Tennessee by the Union forces, being thereby relieved from suffering the penalty of death, having been condemned as a Union spy, arrived in the City yesterday afternoon, and is stopping at the Astor House.

American Institute Farmers' Club.—Wm. R. Prince, of Flushing, will deliver an address before this society at their regular meeting to-day, at 1:30 P. M. Subject—"Flax of Superior Varieties, and Grapes."

THE WAR IN THE SOUTHWEST.

Guerrilla Operations on the River—Arrival of Gen. A. J. Smith at Vicksburgh—More Scares at Paducah.

CAIRO, Monday, May 30.

The steamer Graham, from Memphis with dates of the 27th, arrived last night.

On the morning of the 25th the gunboat Curlew was attacked at Gaine's Landing, 50 miles below Napoleon, by a rebel battery of ten guns, eighteen and twenty-four pounders. The fire was returned and a brisk engagement ensued, lasting half an hour, when the rebels were driven off.

The steamer Belle, for St. Louis, from Memphis, has arrived, with 343 bales of cotton for St. Louis, and one day's later dates from Memphis.

The United States hospital boat Thomas, in charge of Dr. E. H. Harris, had arrived from the Red River, with about 200 of those who were wounded in the engagement at Yellow Bayou.

Nineteen boats had arrived at Vicksburgh with Gen. A. J. Smith's command.

The steamer Lingworth was fired into on Wednesday last by a rebel battery of six guns, from the Arkansas shore, near Columbia, but being out of range, she passed on without injury.

The steamer Sally List was also fired into the following evening by the same battery, and her pilot was badly wounded.

There was considerable activity in the cotton market, which was firm, and all offerings were taken at advanced rates. Middling to strict, 77c.@80c.; good, 81c.@82c.; fair, 83c.@84.

Forrest, with 15,000 men, was reported to have been at Tupello, Miss., on the 20th inst., engaged in moving forage to Corinth, intending to repair the railroad to Jackson. Portions of his command within a few days had made their appearance in the vicinity of Union City, Ky.

Much excitement existed at Paducah, yesterday, in consequence of various rumors of the approach of Buford with a force estimated at from five hundred to one thousand. This force is said to have been at Mayfield yesterday. The military authorities are prepared to repel any attack attempted, and it is not likely that they will allow the enemy to remain in the vicinity in any force.

Scattering bands are roving about the country, committing depredations. They hung four Union men at Union City, on the 27th.

DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF.

Return of Gen. Banks—The Dam at Alexandria—The Fire at Alexandria—Departure of the Army and their Safe Arrival at the Atchafalaya—Novel Pontoon Bridge—Battles of Avoyelles Prairie and Yellow Bayou—Maj.-Gen. Canby.

From Our Own Correspondent.

NEW-ORLEANS, Monday, May 23, 1864.

RETURN OF GEN. BANKS.

Conformably with the rumors which I sent you in my last, Gen. Banks and his whole staff arrived here on Saturday, the 21st, about noon—all safe and sound, except Lieut. Simpson, who was taken prisoner on the little gunboat Signal, at Wilson's plantation, on the 4th inst., and Capt. Hall, in carrying dispatches from Alexandria.

From the 2d inst.—the day on which I left Alexandria—up to the 14th—the day on which the whole army evacuated the place—there is nothing of consequence to record, in the way of engagements with the enemy. During that time their cavalry and ours would occasionally meet in unimportant cavalry skirmishes, in which they got quite as much as they gave us, and with interest; but nothing to cause us the slightest trouble or apprehension. Our thoughts were concentrated on something of far more consequence to us than the petty annoyance of rebel squads, and that was the success or failure of

THE DAM.

This has proved, I am delighted to record, quite as great a triumph as I ventured to predict it would, in spite of the jeers and sneers of all those who really wished to see it fail. Engineers may boast of such tremendous works of art as the Thames Tunnel, the Menai Bridge, and other lasting memorials of man's mechanical genius, but, for spontaneous and ingenius adaptation of imperfect means to tremendously important ends, for downright Yankee ingenuity in getting out of a tight corner, this work of Lieut. Col. Bailey will be justly considered one of the most splendid successes ever won by an engineer.

I will try to give your readers some little idea of what he had to do and how he accomplished it. Above the upper falls of Alexandria—some miles above the city—no fewer than twelve of our gunboats were completely imprisoned, the lowness of water making it utterly impossible for them to move down. Lieut.-Col. Bailey conceived the idea of so damming the upper water of the Red River as to gain the extra depth of five feet which was necessary. Near the upper falls he constructed what are called wing dams—obstructions projecting diagonally from either shore toward the centre of the river, and leaving a channel in the centre. At the lower falls, a very little above Alexandria, which I saw in the process of construction two or three days after they had commenced, the process was as follows:

On the side of the river opposite Alexandria—the stream at this point being about 400 feet wide—Col. Bailey constructed his tree dam. This was done by felling the trees which abounded on the shore, and throwing them down into the river, where their interlacing trunks and branches, aided by the natural weight of the current, were forced down to the bottom, forming an impervious obstacle to the water. On the top of these debris were thrown large loads of stone, all tending to make the mass more solid and concrete. This construction was carried out toward the centre of the river. On the opposite, or Alexandria side of the river, owing to the rocky nature of the bed, huge cribs and barges were sunk, filled with stone and rubbish, and firmly anchored; leaving a space of some eighty feet in the centre through which, when the water had attained sufficient height and that portion of the obstruction was removed, the vessels all came triumphantly. Toward the end, I am informed, two thousand men were kept employed, night and day; the officers of Banks' own staff relieving each other and passing entire nights in seeing the work properly pushed.

It must have been a proud hour for the engineer, for the whole army—a large portion of whom lined the lofty bluffs of Alexandria, to witness the sight—when our gallant tars and their sturdy crafts came reeling and plunging, like so many cockle shells, down that daringly extemporised mill-dam, from danger into safety. The rapids of the St. Lawrence are a mere holiday joke to it. In picturing such a scene one can scarcely put any limit to Northern ingenuity and determination, and it leads me to feel that the boast I heard an indignant young officer make, when coming down the Mississippi from Alexandria, was not much overstrained. Somebody, of decidedly secesh proclivities, was worrying the young Northener with all sorts of reasons why the dam must fail, and why the Red River never could be made to rise by any such process. The officer at last got quite furious and sprung to his feet with! "D—n your Red River, Sir; if it bothers us much longer we will make a new one."

As a matter of course, Lieut.-Col. Bailey has become quite a hero by this performance. By the death of Col. Boardman, which occurred recently at Baton Rouge by sickness, he ranks as Colonel of the Fourth Wisconsin Cavalry. The navy are so pleased with the skill which has got them out of so unpleasant a dilemma, that they are, I understand, about to make him some very handsome testimonial, but in what shape I have not yet heard. He certainly has rendered important services enough on this occasion to bring his name very prominently forward for promotion before the highest authorities of the nation.

THE FIRE AT ALEXANDRIA.

The fire which occurred at Alexandria immediately on the eve of our departure, was a most lamentable affair. Of course, the rebels will make the most of the occurrence, and we shall hear everything about "Northern barbarity," "Yankee vandalism," &c., but the fact is that, beyond the poor individual sufferers themselves, nobody deplores this occurrence more than the officers and men of the United States Army. It was simply a most dreadful and untimely calamity; but whether owing purely to accident, or to the unauthorized villainy of any individual wretch on our side, or that of rebel sympathizers, it is utterly impossible to imagine.

All we know is that on the 14th, at 8 A. M., on the day fixed for the departure of the army—having seen the gunboats safe, the only thing that had hitherto detained him—a fire broke out on Main-street, near the ice-house. Gen. Banks immediately went down, accompanied by his staff, and made every effort to extinguish the fire. They succeeded—to all appearances at least—and joyfully returned to headquarters. They had, however, scarcely returned, when a fresh alarm was given, and the fire was seen to break out in two new places. An Aid-de-Camp, Col. J. C. Wilson, was immediately dispatched, who, with a force of between three and four hundred men, used every available effort to subdue thr flames, but in vain; although they did succeed in rescuing considerable property for the unfortunate owners. The wind blowing in one direction, the flames swept with disastrous fury from block to block; and it was not until 5 o'clock P. M., that, having at last reached the large open space occupied by the wooden railway buildings, which Col. Wilson caused to be pulled down, the conflagration was at last stopped. The City Hall—a fine brick building—was destroyed; the Episcopal Church, and about two hundred houses in all; indeed, we may say the largest portion of the town.

DEPARTURE OF THE ARMY.

At 10 o'clock that night, when the whole army had left, except a brigade of cavalry, the enemy tried to come in and were driven back by our cavalry with considerable loss. This remnant of our men left the town at 2 A. M. the next morning, the 15th. On the afternoon of the same day there was a sharp engagement between the rear guard of our army, composed of Col. Davis' brigade of cavalry and Gen. Cameron's division of the Thirteenth Army Corps, who were attacked by Gen. Wharton and 5,000 Texas cavalry; but we repulsed the enemy and pursued our course.

FURTHER ENGAGEMENTS.

Quite a severe fight occurred on the 16th at Avoyelles Prairie, in which we repulsed the enemy and punished him severely with artillery; but as it was our programme to reach Semmesport for objects of greater consequence on the tapis, we did not pursue them, as we could have done, very effectually.

On the 18th they again attacked us, the enemy being commanded by Major-Gen. Prince Polignac, and our men by the brave Brig.-Gen. Mower, who inflicted upon his titled antagonist a terrible lesson—driving him off, at the end of six hours' fighting, with the loss of about 600 killed and wounded, and 300 prisoners, who have been brought to New-Orleans. This last engagement occurred at Yellow Bayou.

SAFETY OF OUR ARMY.

Having thus far warded off the enemy successfully, our troops arrived, on the 19th inst., at the Atchafalaya, which they crossed the next day, by a most remarkable and novel sort of pontoon bridge formed of twenty transport steamers put stern to stern along the whole width of the river. The scene is described by those who witnessed it as one of the grandest imaginable. Here our brave fellows at once lay down to rest in safety, after their harassing campaign, and ready for anything that may be required of them again. They will not wait long; for you may depend upon it the army of this department will not be long kept inactive.

MAJ.-GEN. CANBY.

You are aware that this distinguished General has already taken command of the army, in what is called the Trans-Mississippi Department, including the Department of the Gulf. What Canby's movements are, nobody here, of course, professes to know.

FROM HAVANA AND ST. DOMINGO.

Further Spanish Successes in St. Domingo—Capture of Monte Christi and San Christbel—The Florida.

An arrival yesterday at this port brings later of Havana papers.

The Spanish aggressions in Peru excite considerable comment, and the official documents are printed in full; they contain, however, no later news than has been already received here on the subject.

The subscription in Cuba for the relief of the sufferers by the great earthquake at Manila has amounted to $65,713.

Intelligence from St. Domingo announce further Spanish successes.

The City of San Cristabel has been taken from the "rebels," and two barks laden with materials of war, for the insurrectionists, have been captured by Spanish vessels.

From St. Domingo we also learn of the capture of Monte Christe, but the intelligence was not received in time to prevent enormous expenses, etc., in forming an expedition to capture it, which has sailed from Santiago de Cuba.

The rebel privateer Florida was at St. Pierre, Martinique, on the 24th ultimo. She was under the command of Capt. Morris, and would remain in port several days.

OUR HAVANA CORRESPONDENCE.

Important from St. Domingo—Capture of Monte-Cristi by the Spanish Troops.

HAVANA, Monday, May 23, 1864.

Gen. Candara has sent a dispatch notifying the capture of Monte-Cristi by the Spanish troops. The attack took place on the 17th, when all the troops behaved well, but those which bore off the honors of the day were the battalions of "Habana" and "Union" and some bodies of the militia. Amongst the wounded were Gen. Primo de Rivero.

The fight was a hard one, and the victory, well disputed, beneath a blistering sun, was not achieved without some loss; the Spaniards having a hundred men killed or wounded. The assault was well seconded by the ships of the squadron.

The dispatch of the Captain-General of St. Domingo is as follows:

"Monte-Cristi has been in our power since 1 o'clock yesterday; we have taken from the enemy the town, with the forts and intrenchments, which were defended by a force of upward of 3,000 men, with thirteen pieces of ordnance."

Monte-Cristi was considered by the insurgents to be their principal stronghold, and hence the importance attached to its capture.

GREAT BRITAIN.

THE FOREIGN ENLISTMENT ACT.

MEMORIAL OF THE SHIPOWNERS OF LIVERPOOL.

From the Shipping Gazette.

The following documents have been forwarded to us for publication:

"The seagoing mercantile marine of England exceeds that of any other country, and the increasing use of steam and iron would seem likely to give to Great Britain an annually increasing proportion of the carrying trade of the world. The leaders of both parties in the House of Commons seem aware of the danger to which the shipping property of this country is exposed; and it is hoped that no interest taken in foreign trobles or quarrels will lead the House to overlook so important a British interest.

A petition to the same effect as the memorial from certain shipowners of Liverpool (which was published in the Shipping & Mercantile Gazette in June last,) has now been signed by all but one of those who signed the memorial last year, and by other shipowners, together representing an enormous proportion of the tonnage of the port of Liverpool, and including the present and two former chairmen of the Liverpool Shipowners' Association, and the firms of the present and preceding chairmen of the Mersey Docks and Harbor Board. It has been forwarded to Mr. Horsfall for presentation.

A comparison of the memorial with the petition will show that the lapse of nearly twelve months has neither changed the opinions nor relieved the apprehensions of the shipowners who signed it last year.

LIVERPOOL, May 12, 1864."

To the Honorable the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled:

The petition of the undersigned shipowners of Liverpool, showeth:

That your petitioners, who are deeply interested in British shipping, (and many of whom memorialized Earl Russell, her Majesty's Principal Secretary for Foreign Affairs, to this same effect on the 9th of June, 1863,) view with dismay the probable future state of affairs which permits a foreign belligerent to construct in and send to sea from British ports vessels of war in contravention of the provisions of the existing law.

That the immediate effect of placing at the disposal of that foreign belligerent a very small number of steam cruisers has been to paralyse the mercantile marine of a powerful maritime and naval nation, inflicting within a few months losses direct and indirect on its shipowning and mercantile interests which years of peace may prove inadequate to retrieve.

That your petitioners cannot shut their eyes to the probability that in any future war between England and a foreign Power, however insignificant in naval strength, the example now set by subjects of Her Majesty while England is neutral may be followed by citizens of other countries, neutral when England is belligerent.

That the effect of future war with any Powers thus enabled to purchase, prepare and refit vessels of war in neutral ports, will inevitably be to transfer to neutral flags that portion of the sea-carrying trade of the world which is now enjoyed by your petitioners and other British shipowners.

That over and above the chances of pecuniary loss to themselves, your petitioners share in the regret with which a law-regarding community must naturally look on successful attempts to evade the provisions of an act of Parliament passed for a single and simple purpose, but which has been believed not to give the Executive all the powers needed for its effective execution.

That the experience of late events, has proved to the conviction of your petitioners that the possession by a belligerent of swift steam cruisers, under no necessity, actual or conventional, to visit the possibly blockaded home ports of that belligerent, but able to obtain all requisite supplies from neutrals, will become a weapon of offence against which no preponderance of naval strength can effectually guard, and the severity of which will be felt in the ratio of the shipping and mercantile wealth of the nation against whose mercantile marine the efforts of those steam cruisers may be directed.

That if the existing law be found insufficient for the purpose, your petitioners would respectfully urge upon your honorable house the expediency of sanctioning the introduction of such amendments in the Foreign Enlistment Act as may have the effect of giving greater power to the Executive to prevent the construction in British ports of ships designed for the use of belligerents; and your petitioners would further suggest to your honorable House the importance of endeavoring, through her Majesty's Government, to secure the assent of the Government of the United States of America and of other foreign countries to the adoption of similar regulations in those countries also.

And your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray: Benj. C. Nicholson, Thomas Chilton, Joseph Hubback, Finlay Campbell & Co., John Campbell, Gibbs, Bright & Co., T. & J. Brocklebank, S. R. Graves, J. Baines & Co., Cropper, Ferguson & Co., T. & J. Harrison, J. Browne & Co., J. Aikin, Rankin, Gilmour & Co., Rathbone Bros. & Co., G. H. Fletcher & Co., Joseph Steel, T. H. THE NON-IMPORTATION MOVEMENT.

THE LADIES' NATIONAL COVENANT.

From the London Times, March 18.

A great movement, designed by its promoters to produce nothing less than "social revolution," has just been inaugurated in the Federal States. The financial condition of the country has at last begun to cause alarm among all classes. Gold stands at least at 80 premium, and even Mr. Chase is at his wit's end for any promising means of reducing its price. But a sudden resource has opportunely come to light. The panic has at length reached the ladies, and they have extemporized a plan for at once putting a stop to the evil. Our readers have been made familiar with the profuse and extravagant expenditure which the war has encourged among all the prosperous classes of the New-England States. There never had been such a demand for jewelry, diamonds, silks, laces, pictures, and every article of luxury. American expenditure was always reckless, and American ladies had a reputation even before the war for indulging and pampering every passion of taste, touch, sight, smell, or hearing; but since the war they have spent at a pace which has taken away the breath of even native-born Americans, and Broadway has stood in amazement at itself. But it has suddenly, as it seems, been brought home to the mind and conscience of American ladies that this extravagant luxury is not only highly unbecoming, but that it is an obvious source of the extraordinary and ruinous demand for gold. These laces, silks, pictures, and jewels are for the most part foreign and imported articles, which must be paid for in specie. This being once realized, can American ladies hesitate as to the course they ought to pursue? Can they shrink for a moment from "the self-sacrifice of restricting the exercise of their vanity and "yielding up" their unbecoming luxuries? Of course, their resolution has at once been taken, and it has even surpassed the abnegation which could have been expected of them. They have not only determined to diminish their imported luxuries, but to abandon them altogether. Their patriotism has shot up into one irresistible blaze, which consumes every shred of foreign luxury and self-indulgence. * * * *

The repentance, after all, is not in sackcloth and ashes, but in purple and fine linen; only a different sort of purple and fine linen from what was indulged in before, and such a sort as will enable the fair customers to kill two birds—nay, three birds—with one stone—to satisfy their own requirements, to enrich instead of impoverishing their country, and to starve the foreigner. Our readers must by no means imagine that New-York and Washington will immediately wear a gloomy and sombre aspect, or that the New-England States will relapse into Puritan sobriety of apparel. The taste and the quality will alone be diminished: not even will the expense and the extravagance be the less, for it is obvious that the prices of foreign articles will not diminish when it becomes a risk to import them, and the home manufacturers, under the increased demand, will be able to keep up the prices of their home goods almost to the highest prices of the foreign articles. In point of fact, any absolute abandonment of articles of luxury, taste and finery, would itself be treason to the welfare of the Union; for the very wealth of these ladies' husbands and fathers depends upon the demand for articles of luxury, either imported or home-manufactured, and to annihilate the custom in these productions would be to create a panic in trade, to ruin themselves, and to raise the price of gold still further. The whole life of society now exists by one magnificent race of neck or nothing. Let only one interest stand still for a moment, and all must come down with a crash. Indeed, it may be doubted whether the step already taken may not, if it be carried out, produce some of the very disasters it seeks to avoid. Congress has just raised the duty on all imported articles 50 per cent. for three months, not only with the same object of protecting native manufactures as seems to be primarily pursued by the ladies' association, but also with a view of raising a larger revenue. The immediate effect of the ladies' resolution would be to annihilate this revenue completely, and, as last year the receipts from customs was two-thirds of the United States' income, the result would probably be somewhat disastrous to Mr. Chase's budget.

Addison gives a humorous account of a Tory squire whom he met by chance in a country ride, and who maintained, over a bowl of punch, to which he was evidently addicted, that England would do very well if it would content itself with its own productions, and not depend upon foreigners. Addison reminded him, to his great discomfiture, that of the favorite drink he was enjoying the water was the only constituent part of English production, and that the brandy, the lemon, the spice and the sugar were all foreigners. The American ladies, and still more the American gentlemen, will, we imagine, be in very much the same predicament as the squire. We shall wait with some anxiety to see the sequel of this heroic resolution, or whether it has any at all. As far as the men are concerned, we are quite certain that merchants may continue to import cigars, liquors and wines without the slightest alteration. An American without his cigar is about as possible a metamorphosis as an Ethiopian with a white skin; and the probability of an abandonment of imported wines may be judged of from the fact that in his late defeat Gen. Banks "lost his baggage and champagne." When Generals in a difficult march over a hostile country find champagne a necessary addition to their baggage, the chance of a New-York merchant abandoning imported wines must be infinitesimal. It is to be feared the habits of the ladies will in the same way prove too strong for them. American taste will be to that of Paris as "Jersey lightning" to Cognac, and will stand the same chance against it. If it were possible, though, one would be glad to see the experiment well tried for the sake of its very absurdity. There is something like a burlesque in the notion of the principal ladies of the smartest nation under the sun carrying out in broad daylight the muddle-headed fancy of a country squire of George I.'s time. What can be said of the people where the wives of Ex-Presidents Vice-Presidents, Senators and Representatives can seriously hold a large meeting in the Capital City, in the very crisis of the war, and act out this extravagant piece of half-mad, half-smart bombast? What can we expect from the men whose wives, daughters and mothers can find no other public exercise of feminine qualities than this bizarre and tricksy patriotism? If it were possible to forget the terrible sacrifice of human life that is involved in the struggle, and the great issues to history which hang upon its result, one would be disposed to treat the whole scene as one grand pantomime, where the only object is to outface absurdity with absurdity, and we should await with the easy excitement of spectators the anticipated and intended crash.

FROM CHARLESTON

From the Liverpool Courier, May 18.

The schooner Samuel Martin, of Charleston, South Carolina, has just arrived in the Mersey from Charleston with a cargo of 132 bales of Upland cotton. The registered burthen of the Samuel Martin is only 79 tons. She is commanded by Capt. Thomas W. Jones, late of the well-known trader John Rascal. She is of somewhat unusual build, being adapted for carrying a large cargo on a light draft of water. She is 75 feet long, 25 feet beam, and draws only 6½ feet water when loaded. She left Charleston on the 9th of April, and has made the passage from land to land in 28 days, having been detained in the Channel for 10 days by contrary winds. She is the first vessel which has arrived from Charleston for a considerable time, the blockade-runners having of late chiefly turned their course to intermediate ports.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The English political news is a blank, Parliament not being in session.

The weather was intensely hot for the middle of May; and the Whitsuntide holidays were being very generally enjoyed in the manufacturing regions.

A so-called "cigar steamship" was being built on the Thames for Mr. Winans, and will be launched, with her steam up and ready for sea, by about the middle of August. Her length over all is 256 feet, and her engines will be so powerful that it is estimated that she will steam at the rate of 26 knots, or nearly 30 miles an hour.

A case of scandal had come to light in the War Office. Gambling by means of dice for large sums of money was discovered to be a common practice among some of the employes in the department, and two persons occupying high positions in the office were accordingly summarily dismissed, while sundry junior clerks had a milder punishment meted out to them.

The Daily News says the cotton question is becoming one of serious interest, as there is a general disposition to believe that the war in the United States is approaching a final issue, and the restoration of peace will simply end in the reopening of the greatest cotton market of the world. The Daily News shows that, unless the greatest prudence is exercised, the sudden influx of an artificially scarce commodity and the consequent heavy fall in prices may prove most disastrous.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE DANO-GERMAN WAR.

The Conference again met on the 17th of May, and continued in session from 1 o'clock till 4 P. M.—all the members being present.

The Daily News says:

"After another sitting of more than three hours, the Conference can hardly be said to have advanced a single step toward effecting the object for which it was assembled, the prospect of its agreeing on any satisfactory terms of peace being apparently as distant as ever. The divergence of opinion not only between the belligerents but between Austria and Prussia and the neutral Powers is so wide that as yet they have not been able even to agree in any common basis of discussion. The German Powers repudiated altogether their treaty engagements toward Denmark, asserting that the war has liberated them from all international obligations relating to the Danish State, even those solemnly contracted in concert with the other Powers, and avowedly for European objects. On the other hand the Danish plenipotentiaries necessarily insist on the provisions of the London treaty as binding on all its signitaries, and in this view they are of course supported by the neutral Powers. It is clear, therefore, that unless Austria and Prussia modify their point of view in harmony with the judgment of the mediating Powers the deliberations of the Conference can have no result, as there will be no opportunity of discussing any scheme of compromise or even of bringing forward any really fair and conciliatory proposal. If the Powers who signed the treaty of London are bound at all they are of course bound towards Denmark on whose behalf the treaty was made. If the Conference, therefore, is to do anything at all, the treaty of London must obviously be taken as a starting point. The Conference will not meet again until the 28th of May; more than half the time agreed upon for the cessation of hostilities will then have expired, and unless all preliminary difficulties are then overcome there will be little chance of the deliberations leading to any practical result."

The Daily Telegraph says that in the Conference

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

The Fat-boiling Nuisance.

THE POLICE TRYING TO BREAK UP THE ESTABLISHMENTS.

People who reside in the vicinity of, and those who have occasion to travel through that portion of our City near the foot of West Thirty-ninth-street, will be rejoiced to learn that the police are taking active measures against the proprietor of that infernal nuisance, the fat-boiling establishment in the above-named street, near the river. G. LORD, of the Sanitary Squad, appeared before Justice DOWLING and made a complaint against Mr. JAMES BUCHAN, proprietor of the fat-boiling establishment and tallow manufactory at Nos. 5 and 6 Abattoir-place, foot of West Thirty-ninth street. Capt. LORD testifies that, upon visiting the place, he found the putrified fat of animals in large quantities, all of which was in the last stages of decomposition; that the stench arising therefrom was highly offensive, and that the atmosphere in all that portion of the City was very impure in consequence. The Captain also states that in the establishment they have a large boiler capable of containing from five to seven thousand pounds of fat; that, during the boiling process, the unhealthy effluvia therefrom fills the atmosphere for many blocks round and renders it unsafe for families to dwell in that vicinity. In short, Capt. LORD characterizes Mr. BUCHAN's establishment as a nuisance, and he insists that the health of the citizens and the welfare of that part of the City demand its prompt abatement. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mr. BUCHAN.

Communications from the Mayor.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
NEW-YORK, May 28, 1864.

To the Honorable the Common Council:

GENTLEMEN: The resolution granting permission to BERNARD KINNEY to keep a stand in Wall-street is returned without my signature.

The stand, which it is designed to have raised or continued under this resolution, is a house or small store for the transaction of business, placed on the pavement of the street, and permanently obstructing that space which should be kept open for the use of the public. I am perfectly willing to suffer some poor women or unfortunate to keep a table on the sidewalk, where it does not interfere with the convenience of pedestrians; but I object to having the streets let out for business purposes, while thousands of cartmen are delayed with their loads across the pavement.

The practice is unjust to the owners and occupants of property in the vicinity. The multiplication of these sheds and shanties along West and South streets and the neighborhood of these thoroughfares, has grown to be an intolerable nuisance. Since the laying of railroad tracks in these and other streets in the business quarter, the evil has been aggravated, and, I believe, that no measure could be adopted by the Common Council more acceptable to the public than clearing every such obstruction from the streets.

At the principal gate and outlet between the Cities of New-York and Brooklyn, where thousands are passing and repassing, the streets are obstructed by stands stretching some distance over the pavement. Over the Fulton Ferry alone fifty thousand pedestrians and five thousand vehicles pass daily. The private interests of the keepers of these stands cannot for a moment be regarded when weighed in the great scale of public convenience.

I have performed my duty, gentlemen, in seeking to prevent the increase of this nuisance. If I am correct, the responsibility for its continuance (as in other cases) must rest with you.

C. GODFREY GUNTHER, Mayor.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW-YORK, May 30, 1864.

To the Honorable the Common Council:

GENTLEMEN: I would recommend to your honorable Body to adopt such measures as may be deemed most expedient to secure, in a permanent form, the original "field notes" made by Mr. JOHN RANDEL, Jr., during the surveys made by him, under the auspices of the Commissioners for laying out the City of New-York, and subsequent thereto, while engaged in the preparation of his map of the City, from 1818 to 1821. It is now proposed by Mr. RANDEL to reproduce his map on an enlarged scale, so as to admit of the incorporation in it of the information embraced in the "field notes." The value of such a work is obvious, and I respectfully refer to the report on this subject of the Committee on Arts and Sciences of the Board of Aldermen, made on the 12th of October last, as showing very conclusively the utility of preserving these records.

C. GODFREY GUNTHER, Mayor.

GENERAL CITY NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE LOUISIANA DELEGATES TO THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION.—Among the passengers who arrived yesterday morning on the steamship Merrimac were the delegates elected by the Union men of Louisiana, to represent that State in the National Union Convention to be held at Baltimore on the 7th prox. In addition to the political powers delegated to them, they are charged with the responsible duty of making some arrangement with the Government by which the embarrassments now retarding the commercial prosperity of New-Orleans may be effectually removed, and trade regulations rendered less stringent. On Sunday, when off the Delaware Coast, the delegation were handsomely entertained by Capt. SAMPSON, of the Merrimac, whose health was proposed by Hon. CUTHBERT BULLITT. Capt. SAMPSON responded, and in turn toasted the Delegation, on whose behalf J. W. THOMAS, Esq., replied at length, pledging the members to an unqualified support of ABRAHAM LINCOLN for the next Presidency. The following is a list of the delegates: Cuthbert Bullitt, Edward H. Durell, M. F. Bonzano, W. R. Fish, R. W. Taliaferro, T. M. Wells, B. Rush Plumley, Alexander A. Atocha, C. A. Weed, J. W. Thomas, H. Millspaugh, A. Cazabat, J. P. Sullivan, and R. V. Montague.

PERSONAL.—Maj. PAULINE CUSHMAN, Union spy and scout, arrived yesterday at the Astor House. The lady is suffering from a wound received while on duty with the Army of the Cumberland, and visits this City for surgical advice.

TRIAL TRIP OF THE SACRAMENTO.—The steamship Sacramento, built for the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, left her dock at the foot of Canal-street yesterday afternoon on an engineer's trial trip for two days.

SALE OF FINE HORSES.—Mr. HENRY LLOYD, of Lloyd's Manor, L.I., advertises in another column an auction sale of a number of fine blooded horses, of his own raising.

TWENTIETH WARD CITIZENS' ASSOCIATION.—The Citizens' Association of the Twentieth Ward will meet this evening in Continental Hall, corner Eighth-avenue and Twenty-fourth-street, at 8 P. M.

LAW REPORTS.

Sentence of Kohnstamm.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT—MAY 30.

This morning being set apart for the decision of the court on the motions in arrest of judgment, and for a new trial in the Kohnstamm case, the courtroom was thronged. The prisoner sat at the table with his counsel, Mr. Evarts, Judge Dean and Judge Beebe—Mr. Brady being absent. Judge NELSON took his seat on the bench, and, when the court was opened, proceeded to read decisions in two or three cases which had been argued before him, during which time Judge SHIPMAN came in and also took his seat on the bench.

Judge NELSON then proceeded to read the following decision, denying the motions made in behalf of the prisoner:

The United States vs. Salomon Kohnstamm.—NELSON, C. J.—The prisoner has been convicted on an indictment founded upon the Act of Congress passed 3d of March, 1823, charging him with having presented false papers to a disbursing officer in relation to an account or claim with intent to defraud the Government, knowing at the time the papers were false. The act, so far as is material to this opinion, is as follows: "If any person or persons shall transmit to, or present at, or cause or procure to be transmitted to, or presented at any office or officer of the Government of the United States any deed, &c., or other writing, in support of or in relation to any account or claim with intent to defraud the United States, knowing the same to be false," &c., every such person, on conviction, shall be punished by imprisonment at hard labor not less than one, nor more than ten years.

The first count charges that the prisoner, on the 1st of August, 1862, did transmit to and present at, and caused to be transmitted to and presented at an office of the Government of the United States, in the City of New-York, called the United States Mustering and Disbursing Office, a certain false writing in relation to a claim then and there made by the prisoner against the United States, namely, that the prisoner was entitled to receive and collect from the United States the sum of thirteen hundred and sixty-six dollars, setting out in the indictment a copy of papers which purport to be a claim of one Louis Pfeiffer against the Government for the subsistence and lodging of soldiers belonging to the Company F of Capt. Steinel, with an averment that the prisoner knew at the time that the papers or writings were false.

The second count is substantially like the first, except it avers that the clause was for rations and lodgings furnished by Louis Pfeiffer for recruits in the service of the United States.

The third count is substantially like the second, except the false writing charged in the certificate of Captain French, certifying to the correctness of the account of Pfeiffer for the subsistence and lodging of the soldiers.

In the motion on arrest of judgment, it has been insisted, on the part of the prisoner, that the indictment is defective in this—That in order to constitute the offence under the act of Congress, it must appear that the prisoner had a claim against the Government, and that he presented the false writing or papers in support of or in relation to his own claim, whereas the false writings set out in the several counts purport to be in support of, and in relation to a claim not of the prisoner, but of one Louis Pfeiffer. It is also insisted that the evidence conforms to this view of the claim.

The precise averment in the several counts in the indictment is, that these false papers were presented in support of and in relation to a claim made by the prisoner against the Government, namely, that he was entitled to receive and collect from the United States the sum of $1,366.

We are of opinion this averment is sufficient. It will be seen on reference to the act of Congress, that the claim or account against the Government need not be in favor of the parties presenting the false writing in support of it; indeed, most of the cases which have come before me, and in which convictions took place, the accused were but the guilty agents of the parties in whose favor the claim or account was presented. The offence consists in presenting the false writing in the language of the act "in support of or in relation to any account or claim, with intent to defraud the United States."

Another ground taken in arrest of judgment is, that the Act of 1823, under which this indictment is found, has been repealed by the Act of March 2, 1863. We agree that this Act provides for the same offence as prescribed in the Act of 1823, and unless the offences committed under that act, previous to the passage of the subsequent one, are saved by the terms of the repealing clause, they are discharged.

Although this clause is not drawn with professional skill, or knowledge of the legal distinctions between civil and criminal proceedings, and is open to the criticism of the learned counsel, yet we are of opinion that the meaning and intent of Congress cannot well be mistaken. The clause saves not only suits and prosecutions pending, but "all rights of suit, or prosecution under any prior act of Congress, on account of the doing or committing of any act hereby prohibited."

This, we think, embraces the offences that may have occurred under the Act of 1823; although it is not referred to in terms, it is embraced in the description.

The phraseology, "suits, or prosecutions," as used in the clause, was intended, as is apparent, to refer to and embrace both civil and criminal cases; the term prosecution is more usually applied in legal language to criminal, than to civil proceedings. With better knowledge the clause could have been made more explicit and certain, but we cannot doubt as to the intent of it.

A motion has also been made on behalf of the prisoner for a new trial, on the ground of a misdirection of the court in charging the jury.

There was no direct evidence that the prisoner presented the bill of Pfeiffer to the disbursing officer. But the facts as proved were that this bill had annexed to it what purported to be an order from Pfeiffer to pay the amount of it to the prisoner, bearing date May 30, 1862; that the prisoner had bought the bill, and had it in his possession previous to the time when presented; that he had taken steps to get it properly certified, it having been rejected at the office for want of a proper certificate; that when again presented the payment was made by a draft or check on the Assistant Treasurer in favor of the prisoner; that the check was deposited in the Bank of Commerce to his credit in account; and that the prisoner received the avails of it. The court charged the jury that in order to make out the offence, it was not necessary that the prisoner should have presented the papers at the office with his own hand; that it was sufficient if he caused them to be presented; and that the evidence would warrant the jury in coming to the conclusion that he had presented them, or caused them to be presented, in the absence of any explanation; and as no explanation had been given, they would probably have very little difficulty on the point. We are of opinion, on a full consideration of the objection taken to the charge, that it is not well founded.

The motion in arrest and for a new trial is overruled.

SHIPMAN, J.—I concur.

The decision was listened to with intense interest. Its result did not seem to be different from general expectation.

The District-Attorney rose and said:

May it please the Court, I move for sentence upon the prisoner.

Mr. Evarts—On that question of sentence there are some considerations which have not yet been presented to your Honor. We desire no delay in the matter, but your Honor is to be here to-morrow, I suppose.

Judge Nelson—No. I shall close the case to-day.

Mr. Evarts—There are some considerations that we wanted to present to your Honor.

Judge Nelson—We will hear them now.

Mr. Evarts then argued to the court that as the decision was that the act of 1823 was repealed, that part of it which affixed the punishment was gone and was not saved by the saving clause in reference to the rights of prosecution. He cited the case of Shepherd, decided by the Court of Appeals, and argued that the sentence of the court must be limited to that prescribed by the statute of 1863.

When he had closed this brief argument Judge NELSON said: We have anticipated this question. It is somewhat connected with the question presented on the argument on Saturday, and we entertain no doubt that the saving clause of the act of 1863 saves the act of 1823 as it is, as to all offences committed before the act of repeal was passed.

Mr. Delavan, one of the members of the Bar, here rose and stated to the Court that he had received a commission issued out of the Court of Common Pleas for Middlesex County, in England, to take Mr. Kohnstamm's testimony in a case pending there, and felt it his duty to apply to the Court to enable him to take the testimony before sentence was passed.

Judge NELSON, however, declined to hear the application.

The Judge then said to the prisoner, "Stand up, Kohnstamm." Kohnstamm rose and stood in his place, and the Judge said to him: "You have been tried for the offence which has just been referred to—for a fraud upon the Government—and have been convicted after a full and patient trial before the court and jury. Have you anything to offer why the sentence of the court should not be passed upon you?"

Kohnstamm—I have nothing.

Judge NELSON then proceeded to pass sentence upon him in the following words:

SENTENCE.

The offence of which you have been convicted is one that can be committed only upon deliberation and reflection. It required time and preparation, a knowledge of the business of preparing claims against the Government, and skill in getting up the proper documentary proof in support of them; it required also the assistance and coöperation of other persons in furtherance of the fraudulent purpose. It has none of the mitigating circumstances attending a crime committed in haste or on a sudden impulse, or thoughtlessness, but is the result of deliberate judgment in choosing between a life of transgression and crime, and that of virtue, respectability and honor.

Besides the aggravation of deliberation and reflection attending the perpetration of the crime—your position in society and wealth were used to tempt and corrupt the more humble, ignorant and dependent within the circle of your influence. For months you had in your office and employ dependents who were engaged in hunting up these claims against the Government; not only hunting them up, but procuring under your direction the necessary papers and documents to give them the appearance of honest and genuine claims. If there was any ingredient of truth in these claims the amount was grossly exaggerated; in many of them the papers in support of the claim and the claim itself, were an entire fabrication. Many of the persons whose names were used in getting up these papers were imposed upon—many names were forged—many false oaths were taken—indeed, your offence involved in its perpetration, in almost every instance before us, the crimes of forgery and perjury of others, of the wages of which you have been the recipient.

The magnitude of these frauds upon the Government is appalling. A person witnessing your trial, and hearing the evidence in the case, would almost come to the conclusion, that the disbursing office of the Government in this city was established for the payment of false and fraudulent, rather than genuine and honest claims against it.

There are many other indictments, we are informed, already found against you for similar offences. For the present at least you will not be tried upon them—perhaps, never. Indeed, we hope that during the period of the somewhat long imprisonment we feel compelled to fix for this offence, your reflections and conduct may work contrition and reformation, and that when you come out of your confinement you may be able to satisfy the Government and the community that punishment has already had its perfect work, and that further infliction would be cruelty.

You will realize during your imprisonment that the ways of the transgressors are hard—you will be coarsely fed, and coarsely clad—your associations will be among malefactors and felons—fellow beings who have forfeited by their crimes all the associations and enjoyments, and, indeed, almost all the charities of civilized society—scarcely any consolation is left, but one—the opportunity of reflection, of contrition, of humbling yourself in sincere sorrow for the past, and of resolution of amendment of your life in the future.

The Court sentence you to imprisonment in the State Prison, at Sing Sing, at hard labor, for the period of ten years.

The audience was profoundly impressed during the address of the Court. The circumstances of the case, the standing of the prisoner in the community, the array of counsel, the solemn words of the Judge and his manifest sense of the enormity of the crime and the dread power of the law, whose just sentence he was uttering, as was evidenced by the earnestness of his manner and a certain moderating of the intonations of his voice, all tended to make the scene one which will not soon be forgotten by those who were present; and as the last words of the sentence were uttered, the tension on the minds and thoughts of the audience gave way with a buzz and stir throughout the room.

Kohnstamm received his sentence without flinching, and when it was closed sat quietly down in his chair.

The Hunter Murder Case.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

Before Recorder Hoffman.

The trial of Edward Hunter for the murder of his wife was resumed yesterday morning.

John Straus, sworn for the prosecution, testified that he found the hatchet here shown in the privy of the house occupied by prisoner, and gave it to Officer Stevenson.

Officer Stevenson, sworn for the prosecution, testified that he received the hatchet from the last witness; also related the circumstances of Hunter's arrest; witness asked Hunter if he knew who committed the murder, and he said that he did not know.

George Hunter, sworn for the prosecution, testified that he was a son of the prisoner; that he was 12 years old, and had lived with his father in Seventh-avenue; recollected the evening his mother died; his brother and sister were not present at the time; they left at a quarter past six o'clock; witness was with his father, mother, brother and sister-in-law, and the baby, in the room together; after his brother and sister went to the theatre, his father told him to go down to get the stable-key, that it was time to look after the horses; after he did so, his father saw to the horses; went next to his mother's room; his father returned in about ten minutes after; he had fish in his hand, and he told her to try it; she did so; and his father asked her if she would have some, and she said she would; he staid there for a little while and then went out; his mother subsequently found a letter on the mantel-piece and commenced reading it; she asked witness to read it for her, but he said he was too sleepy; when his mother and father were talking they spoke of the names he had called her; could not recollect what they said; witness went to sleep before his father came back, and when he woke up he found his father hitting his mother; she was lying down on the floor; did not know what woke him up; did not hear his mother saying anything; could not see what he struck her with; he was striking his mother on the left side of the head; she did not rise from the floor; his father went out soon after witness woke up; he did not say anything; did not go to his mother to find her condition; ran to the next room and then went down to the sidewalk, where he saw his father; told his father that he would go for the doctor for his mother, but he said to him: Go into the house. It was pretty dark at the time; his father was going toward Thirty-fifth-street; went to the doctor's, but he said he could no no good; when he saw his father, he gave witness a pocket-book to keep, and told him to say nothing about it; met Heffner in the yard, and told him to come up stairs; Hannegan and Kilkeny and afterward his father came up to the room; his father said nothing to him then; he staid there five or ten minutes; was in the room with his father when Heffner went out.

A rigid cross examination by Mr. Clinton did not vary the testimony of the boy essentially. The prosecution here rested, and Mr. J. Francis Walton opened the case for the accused, disclosing that the defence would show that a short time before the murder, prisoner had fallen from the top of a stage, cutting his head open, and inflicting injuries from which he has not yet recovered; that the consequence of this injury has been to derange the mind of Hunter, and to render him liable to fits of lunacy, whenever excited or angered.

The first witness for the defence was Catharine Murphy, a woman living in the same house with the Hunters, and who testified to the unpleasant state of affairs existing between Hunter and his deceased wife, stating that Mrs. Hunter frequently struck prisoner and swore at him.

Court adjourned until this morning at 11 o'clock.

Circuit Court United States.

Before Judge Nelson.

H. B. Goodyear et al. vs. Julius D. Rosenberg; The Same vs. Abraham Ober.—These motions were for attachments against the said defendants, to punish them for contempt of injunctions granted against them, forbidding them from infringing the reissues of the Nelson Goodyear hard-rubber patent of May 6, 1851. The motions were contested by the defendants, but His Honor Judge NELSON decided that they were in contempt, and fined Rosenberg $250 and Ober $100, and committed them to prison until the fines should be paid.

George D. Sargeant and C. M. Keller for complainants; Wm. C. Traphagen for defendants.

MONDAY, May 30—P. M.

The Weekly Averages of the old Banks of the City of New-York on Saturday, May 28, 1864, present in the aggregate the following changes from the previous exhibit of May 21:

Decrease in Loans	$1,543,477
Decrease in Specie	118,511
Decrease in Circulation	126,543
Decrease in Undrawn Deposits	1,346,188

Including the Clearing-house operations of the week, which show the inter-exchanges between the Banks, and including also the Sub-Treasury balance at the close of the week, the following is the general comparison with the previous exhibit, and also with the movement this time last season:

	May 30, 1863.	May 28, 1864.	May 21, 1864.
Capital	$69,128,000	$69,927,725	$69,927,725
Loans	181,825,856	195,813,462	197,356,939
Specie	37,092,634	21,973,180	22,091,691
Circulation	6,494,375	5,240,812	5,367,355
Gross Deposits	217,541,274	240,244,394	250,642,777
Exchanged	51,280,153	68,478,698	77,530,893
Undrawn	166,261,121	171,765,696	173,111,884
In Sub-Treasury	28,363,055	21,331,468	25,410,797

The Bank return presents no feature of particular interest. The movement in all departments, while sharing a moderate decrease, indicates both steadiness and caution on the part of the Associated Banks.

It is announced from Washington to-day that the Treasury is in immediate want of $50,000,000 to $75,000,000 for current use, without waiting for the subscriptions to the 10-40 Loan. The Secretary will probably be in the market in a few days to supply this necessity, in preference to the further issue of interest bearing Legal-Tenders, in what particular form of negotiation is not yet fully determined; but the intimation is that a sale of 1881 6 ℘ cent. Stock at best premium may be resorted to. In this connection it may be added that at least one, and perhaps two, important overtures have been made from Europe for $25,000,000 to $50,000,000 each. The terms are not made public, but at anything like the present currency for Bills on London, are said to be extremely favorable for the Government.

The unexhausted authority to issue funded 6 ℘ cent. Stocks under the Acts of 1861, such Stocks to be known as the 6 ℘ cents. of 1881, may be thus stated:

Act of Feb. 11, 1861	$25,000,000
Less issued early in 1861	18,435,000
To issue in place of two years' Notes	$6,565,000
Acts of July 17 and Aug. 6	$250,000,000
Less to convert 7.30s	140,000,000
Balance	110,000,000
Less issued in September, 1861	50,000,000
To issue in place of Custom-house Notes	$60,000,000

All the two years' notes issued in place of Stock under the Act of Feb. 11, and all the Custom-house Greenbacks issued under the authority of the Acts of July 17 and Aug. 6, having been canceled through the Custom-house, we conclude that if the telegraphic news of this morning states correctly the character or year of the proposed new Stock as 1881 6 ℘ cents., the Secretary construes his authority from the above-mentioned facts and figures, in all $66,565,000; or it may be that under the $900,000,000 Act of March 3, 1863, he proposes to issue "from fifty to seventy-five millions" in a 6 ℘ cent. Stock uniform with the 1881's already well known in our own market, and also abroad.

The announcement of the morning papers, through the Associated Press dispatch from Washington, that the Secretary of the Treasury will probably appeal to the Money market on a 6 ℘ cent. Stock of 1881, had less influence upon the Government Securities than might have been expected. The price of Money, however, is somewhat firmer, though in the absence of an active demand from the Stock Exchange, the change since last week is not important.

The price of Gold at the First Board this evening, was 188@188¼ ℘ cent. as on Saturday night. At 3½ o'clock the price was 191@191¼ ℘ cent. A few speculators for the rise, in the Gold Room, whose secesh proclivities are well understood on the Street, attempted, between Boards, to rush up the price to 195 ℘ cent. in the face of the most favorable Army news, both from Georgia and Virginia. The only practical assistance which they had was in the May Contracts for Exchange which expire to-morrow, through the apprehensions of parties short of Bills on London. But this was not sufficient to support the extreme bidding, nor did the bidding itself create serious alarm among the Import trade who have remittances to make. The impunity with which the price was bid up for an hour or two created more remark than distrust, so far as our Greenback Currency is concerned. The general trade of the City the past week indicates no popular eagerness to part with Greenbacks. On the contrary, the consumers of household supplies and other merchandise are holding back from free purchases. They seem to feel every confidence in the Currency and in the success of the great armies of the Union against the rebellion.

As heretofore remarked, we have no particular confidence in regulating the supply and demand and price of Gold and Exchange by legislation, but we again pray Congress to pass the Gold Bill of Mr. Senator SHERMAN, confining the operations in Gold and Bills on Europe to actual bona fide demand and supply. Its passage will do no harm to honest speculation; certainly no mischief to legitimate trade and exchanges. It will break up the gambling operations against the credit and integrity of the Government, in what is called the Gold Room in this City, which has neither the countenance nor sympathy of our Stock Exchange Brokers, much less of the mercantile public. The secesh, not to say traitorous, proclivities of the leading manipulators of the Room, are made the subject of common remark on the Street, and never more so than to-day, when all our news from the armies of the Union should have put down instead of advanced the price of Gold.

The sales of the 10-40 Loan by the First National Bank, to-day, amounted to $230,500.

The Railway list at the Stock Exchange is generally lower, to-day, than on Saturday. The apprehension among some of the operators is of a closer Money market in June, consequent upon the appearance of the Secretary of the Treasury as a large borrower. After the First Board, and at the Second Board, there was a partial recovery in prices, but later in the Afternoon, say at 4 o'clock, the following prices were made, showing a general decline from Saturday. The general market was dull, and no spirit of active speculation manifested in any department of the official list:

The following official correspondence, in reference to the National Bank Notes as a legal-tender on all Government dues and drafts, is confirmatory of the statements on the subject heretofore made in this and the editorial columns of the TIMES:

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF NEW-YORK,
NEW-YORK, Monday, May 27, 1864.

DEAR SIR: After a good deal of deliberation we have deemed it time to act upon, and settle a question which, if left unsettled for some time to come, might then be more difficult than at present—the question of meeting Government drafts and paying out moneys for Government account in National Currency.

A few days ago we paid a Government draft of $4,800 to a merchant here, in out of town National Bank Notes. He had trouble with the Bank of America in depositing the money.

To-day the Bank of America, through its clerk, presented a small Government draft, and we paid it in National Bank Notes of some out of town Bank—this was refused and the draft was taken away—since which time, up to this hour, 5:30 P.M., we have heard nothing of it. We presume it will be returned to Messrs. RIGGS & Co., who had forwarded it to the Bank of America.

Should you deem any explanation necessary to the Secretary or the Treasurer, please submit the foregoing.

We should like to have a Department opinion as to our course, simply remarking that the time will come when a National Depository must meet Government drafts in moneys collected from the public for taxes, &c.

Yours, most respectfully,
JAMES CURPHEY, Cashier.

Hon. H. MCCULLOCH, Comptroller, Washington.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY,
WASHINGTON, May 28, 1864.

DEAR SIR: Your favor of the 27th inst. is received. I am acting here in an executive, and not in a judicial capacity; but I have no hesitation in giving my opinion upon the point presented by you, which opinion is, that Government depositaries, whether they are Assistant Treasurers or National Banks, have the right to pay Government drafts, by whomsoever held, in the kind of currency which is receivable for Government dues, and by which Government obligations can be discharged.

The Government is bound to receive in payment of all its dues, except duties on imports, the notes of the National Banks. A draft of the Government upon a National Bank is clearly payable to the Government in the national currency, and I have yet to learn that the negotiation of a draft changes its character or the obligations of the payor. Very truly, yours,
H. MCCULLOCH, Comptroller.

JAMES CURPHEY, Esq., Cashier First National Bank, New-York.

The day's business at the office of the United States Assistant Treasurer is as follows: Total receipts, $5,066,547 85, including for Customs. $145,000; Payments, $5,101,339 49; Balance, $21,291,677 28. Ten-forties, $7,500.

The Illinois Central Road earned in the third week of May	$114,936

Same week 1863	83,366
Increase	$31,570

The earnings of the Prairie du Chien Railroad for the third week of May were:

1864 $43,909 | 1863 $24,428
Increase (80 ℘ cent.) $19,481
The increase since Jan 1 is $223,372, or 65 ℘ cent.

LUMBER—Business exhibits rather more animation; stocks are moderate and prices quite firm. In Albany, according to the Argus, "Lumber is arriving freely from all points, and there is a good assortment and fair supply in market. Sales have been moderate, but prices generally have a tendency to an advance, which on some kinds has been realized. The advance in gold requires an increased price on Canada lumber, from which section a large proportion of pine is received, to cover cost and charges. Canal freights also are high, and there seems no probability of any decline in prices this season, unless there is a great change in the affairs of the country. Receipts of Lumber by canal for the week ending May 28, were as follows: By Erie Canal—Lumber, 8,522,249 feet; Shingles, 413m.; Staves, 8,495,600 lbs. By Champlain Canal—Lumber, 4,632,342 feet; Timber, 13,950 cubic feet; Wood, 281 cords."

FOR SALE.

COUNTRY RESIDENCE NEAR THE CITY FOR SALE,

BY ORDER OF GERARD M. STEVENS, Referee,

SATURDAY, June 4, 1864, at 12 o'clock, at Harlem Railroad Depot, Mott Haven, a most attractive country-seat, situated on the Sound, and about two miles from Harlem Bridge, and adjoining the residence of the late B. M. Whitlock. The grounds, consisting of about 13 acres, are tastefully and appropriately laid out. The shore-line is about 700 feet, with water grant in front from the State, and a substantial stone dock. The mansion, which commands a fine view, is a two-story and attic double house, in beautiful order, with all the improvements and conveniences of the best City residence. The stables are ample, and all the outbuildings are first-class. In point of accessibility, style, comfort and prospective value, (being on the line of 150th-st., New-York,) this is regarded as one of the most desirable places now in the market.

N. B.—Sale positive, under a foreclosure of mortgage for about $25,000.

CHOICE COUNTRY SEAT ON THE HUDSON FOR SALE LOW.—Eligibly located on the Albany Post Road, between Tarrytown and Sing Sing, half a mile from the Hudson River Railroad station of Scarsborough, Westchester County. A superior house, nearly new, with 24 rooms, and every convenience; also, gardener's house, and all necessary outbuildings, with about 7 acres of the finest building and gardening land, thoroughly stocked with the various fruits of the climate, and handsomely shaded with evergreen and deciduous trees; a lawn, a garden, an orchard, a vineyard, all exceedingly fine; a stream of living water through the grounds, and a prospect over the Hudson and its shores for beauty and extent almost unrivaled by any in the world. For salubrity and healthfulness, for religious and educational advantages, and for everything desirable to a genteel family, the location can scarcely be surpassed; in short, there is everything on and around the place to make a country residence complete. Purchasers wishing to acquire a first-class property of this description, cheap, will find it very attractive.
C. G. PRATT, No. 38 Pine-st.

DELIGHTFUL SUMMER AND WINTER RESIDENCE FOR SALE—With 70 acres of land, 70 miles from New York by the Harlem Railroad, near the crossing of the Hartford and Fishkill line. It has water in every form, with unusual facilities for boating, fishing and gunning; a choice garden with strawberries and other delights in great profusion; a situation as beautiful as it is healthful, and a prospect wonderful to behold. The valleys laugh with fatness, the atmosphere of the upland slopes is grateful and refreshing beyond expression. The beautiful and valuable buildings on this property are worth more than the price charged for the whole estate, while the luxuriant growth of its meadows yield not less than 18 per cent. annual return for the investment. Stately, compact and elegant, abounding with every convenience, and pleasant as a dream, this property is completely fitted for the residence of a family of taste and refinement. Price $12,000, and scarcely a cheaper, healthier, pleasanter place to be found in the whole country. Apply to C. G. PRATT, No. 38 Pine-st.

FOR SALE—AN OLD FAMILY RESIDENCE ON the Hudson at Rhinebeck, known on map of the river as Clifton Point, three hours from New-York by rail, one of the most beautiful and productive country seats on the Hudson, containing 174 acres, highly cultivated, well underdrained, nearly half mile of river front, good landing, deep water, and water grant whole front to channel, affording one of the best situations on the river for an ice establishment; mansion large, thoroughly built, built of best materials, mostly new, large piazza, 70x12; views of the river extensive, mountain scenery imposing, lawns and walks beautiful, shade trees in abundance, fruit in great variety, garden unsurpassed, situation eminently healthy. Large part of purchase may remain on mortgage. Apply to FREEBORN GARRETTSON, Rhinebeck, Dutchess Co., or FRANCIS T. GARRETTSON, No. 54 Wall-st., N. Y.

STATEN ISLAND PROPERTY FOR SALE—consisting of about ten acres of good land, well stocked with choice fruit trees and shrubbery, modern house and barn, situated about one mile from the Richmond Valley Station, on the Staten Island Railroad; it commands a magnificent view of the adjacent country, the Raritan Bay, Sandy Hook and the Highlands, and is well calculated for a gentleman doing business in the City. For particulars inquire of J. CARLETON, No. 868 Broadway, or GEO. W. LYON, near the premises.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1864.

A NEW AND GREAT INVENTION IN HOOP SKIRTS.
THE DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE) STEEL SPRING.
J. I. & J. O. WEST, NO. 97 CHAMBERS-ST., NEW YORK,
Are the owners of the patent and exclusive manufacturers of this,
J. W. BRADLEY'S
PATENTED DUPLEX ELLIPTIC STEEL SPRING SKIRTS.

This invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most elastic, flexible and durable spring ever used, enabling the wearer, in consequence of its great elasticity and flexibleness, to place and fold the skirt when in use as easily and with the same convenience as a silk or muslin dress. It entirely obviates and silences the only objections to hoop skirts, viz.: the annoyance to the wearer as well as the public, especially in crowded assemblies, carriages, railroad cars, church pews, or in any crowded place from the difficulty of contracting them to occupying a small space. This entirely removes the difficulty, while giving the skirt the usual full and symmetrical form, and is the lightest and most stylish and graceful appearance for the street, opera, promenade or house dress. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterward willingly dispense with the use of them. They are the best quality in every part, and by far the lightest, most durable, comfortable and economical skirt made. Merchants will be supplied as above, and ladies in most first-class retail stores in this City and throughout the different States.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

The news from Gen. GRANT is up to two o'clock P. M. of Sunday, at which time headquarters were at Hanovertown, and the army was all well across the Pamunky, and then occupied a front about three miles south of that river. On Saturday two divisions of our cavalry had a fight with the rebels, and drove them back upon what Gen. GRANT says appears to be their new line, but he expected to find out all about it that day. Important movements of the several corps were in progress when Gen. GRANT'S dispatch left, but no engagement had been fought.

From Gen. SHERMAN there is news of a partial engagement, on Saturday, between the rebels and Gen. MCPHERSON'S corps, which resulted in the enemy's defeat, with a loss in killed, wounded and captured of not less than two thousand five hundred men. Our own loss is put at three hundred.

From Gen. BUTLER'S army there is nothing new. An important movement was to have been made yesterday, but at the present writing we have no details of it.

The news from the Mississippi River is that the rebels are again getting quite bold, and are firing upon many steamers passing up and down the river. Admiral PORTER will soon attend to them. Gen. A. J. SMITH'S command had returned to Vicksburgh.

It appears that Gen. J. E. B. STUART was shot by a private of the Fifth Michigan Cavalry, named DUNN. The bullet entered the right side of the rebel officer and came out at the left. As the General fell, DUNN exclaimed, "Colonel, there is a spread eagle for you." It was not suspected who the General was.

Maj.-Gen. BUELL has been mustered out of the volunteer service, having refused to take a command under Gen. CANBY.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate yesterday the bill to expedite the title to land claims in California was brought up, and, after a long discussion, was laid over. Mr. CONNESS offered an amendment to the Tax Bill, in lieu of the tax of five per cent. on gold and silver produced from quartz mines and the beds of rivers, which was adopted. An amendment to the clause in the Tax Bill relative to banking, was offered by Mr. SHERMAN. Several other amendments were also offered but not acted upon.

In the House of Representatives the Committee on the District of Columbia was directed to inquire into the financial and general affairs of the Washington National Monument Society. The House then resumed the consideration of the resolution submitted by Mr. ROLLINS, favoring an earnest and successful prosecution of the war. A bill appropriating $250,000 for the repairs and preservation of the works for the benefit of commerce on the Lakes, and $100,000 for similar purposes on the seaboard, was passed. Mr. SCHENCK moved a suspension of the rules in order to report a bill for the summary punishment of guerrillas. The House refused to suspend the rules. A bill was passed extending the time fixed for commencing the construction of the Marquette and Ontonogon Railroad in Michigan. In the Kentucky contested election case, the House decided Mr. YEAMAN entitled to retain his seat, by a vote of 96 against 26. It was resolved that the Military Committee be instructed to inquire by what authority the rebels are interspersed with Union soldiers in the various Hospitals and also the treatment they both receive. Mr. LAZEAR offered a peace resolution, requiring the President to adopt measures for the suspension of hostilities between the North and the South, and the calling a convention for the restoration of the Union. It was objected to.

FROM EUROPE.

The Inman steamer City of Baltimore, from Liverpool on the 18th, and Queenstown 19th inst., arrived at this port yesterday morning. The conference on the Dano-German war held a meeting on the 17th, at which all the members were present; but little was done, however, and the conference were to meet again on the 28th. The belief in an approaching fatal termination of the Pope's malady had greatly increased. The London Times of the 14th is quite gloomy over the large emigration from Ireland, by which the Queen loses many subjects. A letter has been written on the same subject by the Roman Catholic Bishop of Toronto to the Roman Catholic Bishops of Ireland. A memorial had been received by the House of Commons from the shipowners of Liverpool, expressing their regret at the action the Government had taken with regard to the construction of ships for the use of belligerents, and praying them to prevent it for the future.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Board of Aldermen met yesterday. A preamble and resolutions by Mr. OTTIWELL, paying a high tribute of respect to the character and memory of Gen. WADSWORTH, were unanimously adopted. The Committee on Public Health presented a lengthy report in regard to fat-boiling. They conclude, from the testimony which they took upon the subject, that the business is an absolute nuisance, which ought to be driven beyond the City. To do this, however, they think it necessary to invoke the power of the Board of Health. The report was directed to be published entire in the official papers. The Mayor sent in a message proposing the purchase of the "Field Notes" of a surveyor made under the auspices of the Commissioners for laying out the City, and while he was engaged in preparing a map of it, in 1818, with a view of embodying them in a new and enlarged map. The Mayor vetoed a grant to keep a stand on the sidewalk in Wall-street, because it would interfere with public travel. He expresses willingness, however, to approve similar grants to poor and worthy persons, at points where public convenience may not be infringed. An application from the Police Commissioners for funds (provided in the City Tax Law, but not yet appropriated) for rebuilding Station-houses for the Eighteenth, Twenty-third and Twenty-seventh Precincts, was referred to the Finance Committee. The board adjourned to 2 o'clock P. M. to-morrow.

The Board of Councilmen, on motion of Mr. BRICE, directed their Ordinance Committee to report an ordinance to regulate the use of the fire telegraph. The board also directed the immediate removal of the temporary buildings on Fourteenth-street, put up for the use of the Sanitary Fair. A resolution was adopted and subsequently concurred in by the Board of Aldermen, directing the Corporation Counsel to take the necessary legal measures for opening several new streets above Sixty-second-street, west of Broadway and through to the Hudson River. A resolution to compel the immediate removal of the sheds illegally erected by the Erie Railroad Company on the bulkhead and piers between Chambers and Duane-street, and directing the Corporation Counsel to sue for the recovery of the penalties to which the company are liable for violating the corporation ordinances, was referred. The board adjourned to Thursday, at 2 o'clock P. M.

Yesterday, Comptroller BRENNAN made the awards of the stock to the amount of $2,000,000 of the "Soldier's Substitute Bounty Redemption Fund," for which bids were opened last Saturday. First, excluding Mr. E. A. ALLEN'S bid at 1½ per cent premium, for the reason that he wanted the whole loan, or none of it, at that rate, all the bids at and above 1½ per cent premium were accepted. These footed up $1,615,200. Then to make up the $2,000,000 Mr. ALLEN was awarded $384,800, upon the presumption that so good a sum at so small a rate, must be acceptable, but if it should not be, it will be advertised anew, and, doubtless, will bring a far higher rate of premium, as the stock extends nine years at six per cent. interest. The premiums upon the accepted bids (including, of course, the proportion accepted of Mr. ALLEN'S bid,) amount to $34,247 70.

The New-York Yacht Club will hold its annual regatta on Thursday, June 2. The course will be from Elysian Fields, Hoboken, round the buoys at Robin's Reef, Owl's Head, Long Island, through the Narrows, and round the buoy at Southwest Spit. The return will be over the same course. Half-past 10 o'clock in the morning is designated as the time of starting. Prizes worth together $150 will be given to the winners among five different classes of yachts—the whole value of the prizes thus being $750. As usual, a steamer will take the members of the club and their female friends, and other boats will doubtless run on the course.

The Seventy-first Regiment left their armory yesterday morning, for East New-York, for battalion drill. The members were dressed in fatigue uniform and carried one day's rations.

The Cleveland Convention, or rather several conventions, met at Cleveland yesterday, though no organization was effected. The assemblage does not seem to be large, as yet, but does seem to go in for FREMONT as a Presidential candidate. GRANT is also urged by some. There are no names of any particular prominence connected with the affair.

Advices from Havana state that the City of San Cristabel has been taken from the "rebels," and two barks with materials of war, for the insurrectionists, have been captured by Spanish vessels. There is also news from St. Domingo of the capture of Monte Christi. The rebel privateer Florida, was at St. Pierre, Martinique, on the 24th ultimo.

The New-Orleans Times, of May 22, announces Gen. BANKS' return to that City. Gen. MCCLERNAND, the same paper states, is convalescing.

The Stock market was lower yesterday on the rumor of the near approach of a Government negotiation in the Money market. There were no sales of Gold at either Board of the Stock Exchange. The gamblers in the Gold-room, in the face of favorable Army news, advanced the price 3 ℘ cent. Money steady, at 6@7 ℘ cent.

The Cattle Market at the Washington yards, Forty-fourth-street, is very lightly supplied with fresh bullocks. The number recorded is less than 2,800, of which over 200 were disposed of last week, this makes the supply more than 300 less than last Monday, when the receipts were quite limited. In consequence of this great falling off sellers put the prices up to an enormous figure at the opening of the sales. We judge prices have ruled fully 2c. ℘ lb. higher than last week, on Monday. The market continued firm through the day; the best bullocks selling as high as 20c., and in some cases butchers think they have paid higher. Prices ranged from 16c.@20c. net weight. The supply of sheep is up to the demand, which is limited at the high prices asked. Shorn sheep rate at 8c.@9½c.@10c., live weight.

Breadstuffs were quoted much higher yesterday, with a fair business in Flour, Wheat and Oats, though export purchases were checked by the unfavorable news from Liverpool by the City of Baltimore. Provisions were quite active, and in most instances dearer, as were also Tallow, Whisky and Cotton, the latter closing very irregularly. Transactions in most other kinds of produce and merchandise were restricted, owing mainly to the advanced prices claimed by holders. Freights were dull and heavy.

Privateering—Alarm of the British Shipping Interest.

Those who desire to form a familiar and satisfactory acquaintance with the British shipowner must study him in various humors and under different aspects.

Among the significant reports of the drift of home politics in England, and the hastening crisis in European affairs which we publish this morning, we find that an important section of the British shipping interest puts itself once more before the world in an attitude of protest, directed against the ravages and the progress of privateering on the high seas. It needed two full years of successful piracy to bring any considerable body of British shipowners to a realization of the fact, not merely that there was any violation of the equity which is supposed to underlie an honest neutrality, in the facilities offered in British shipyards for the equipment and sale of piratical vessels, but it needed that length of time, apparently, to reveal the fact that there were possible dangers growing up from the precedents which were being established. The conviction that such dangers were more than merely possible began to dawn upon the British mind, almost simultaneously with the formal intimation of Mr. ADAMS to the British Foreign Office, that the clearance of the rebel rams at the port of Liverpool would be held by the United States to be an act of war. The same conviction, however, is apparently revived at this moment from no inspiring effort of Mr. ADAMS. It originates, there is little doubt, in the approaching crisis in European affairs. The conference on the affairs of Denmark, we are told, has barely advanced a single step toward effecting the object for which it was assembled, and as there is an adjournment of its deliberations for eleven days, more than half the time during which the armistice holds good will thus have expired. Meanwhile, everything betokens an early renewal of hostilities in a form which can barely fail to involve one or more of the Western Powers in the struggle.

With a clear perception of the critical nature of the situation, then, an influential body of Liverpool shipowners once more address themselves to the grave question of what measures of atonement shall be made for the past errors of British policy in the treatment of rebel privateers, and what provision shall be made in the English statute law which shall make the Foreign Enlistment Act something more than a mockery of legal restraint, and a travesty of neutral obligations. It has just become apparent to this respectable body of shipowners, that the effect of a future war with any Power enabled to purchase, prepare and refit vessels-of-war in neutral ports, (as the rebels have done in England,) will inevitably be to transfer to neutral flags that portion of the sea-carrying trade of the world which is now enjoyed by the British shipowner. This apprehension of the realities of the case, late as it comes into view, we are, perhaps, bound to hail with some acknowledgments. Accepting the maxim that the conscience and the interest of nations are convertible terms, we need not enter into the question of motive. Enough for us at present, at least, that these alarmed owners of ship property have again approached Parliament with a prayer for a revision of the law. "If," say they, "the existing law be found insufficient for the purpose, your petitioners would respectfully urge the expediency of sanctioning the introduction of such amendments in the Foreign Enlistment Act, as may have the effect of giving greater power to the Executive to prevent the construction in British ports of ships, designed for the use of belligerents." The insufficiency of the law, the petitioners would thus refuse to accept as an excuse for executive indecision or official connivance. But there will be many in England, as well as here, to doubt, as Mr. COBDEN doubts, whether the remedy will not have been applied too late. It is difficult altogether to overlook the fact that this privateering business had full swing during two full years before the very eyes of our present protesting friends at Liverpool. With most, if not with each individual craft in this piratical fleet, which they admit has paralyzed the commercial marine of the United States, these Liverpool shipowners had formed an early and intimate acquaintance. They had viewed them in the first stages of equipment. They had seen them start on their destructive career under the most varied auspices, sometimes with a social convoy of festive well-wishers, with fair eyes to grace and abase the gallant spectacle, and fair lips to join in the parting God-speed; sometimes, too, under gloomier omens, when the honor of the enterprise had become a subject of inquest, and its safety a matter of concern. All this these memorialists of the Commons House had seen, and had held their peace. And if we set any store by their present protest, it is as a token that public opinion in England is less obstinately belied and less willfully perverse than it once was on the subject of the inequitable character of the neutrality practiced towards the United States in the very crisis—as we believe it to have been—of this rebellion. We are also entitled to regard this petition, in its resuscitated form, as so much additional testimony to the justice of those protestations by which Mr. ADAMS secured for his case a practical hearing in the British Foreign Office.

Grant's New Position.

"The army," wrote Lieut.-Gen. GRANT on Sunday, "has been successfully crossed over the Pamunky, and now occupies a point about three miles south of the river."

In the meantime, what does LEE now propose to do? And what will GRANT do next?

It seems pretty certain, at all events, that LEE'S retreat is bound to be into Richmond, where GRANT has been trying for a month to get him; and it may also be considered very sure that GRANT will soon draw his lines around the rebel capital. It is quite probable that there will be a battle before that, however. LEE may make a stand on the line of the Chickahominy, where he has old fortifications ready for him. Between the Pamunky, where GRANT crossed, and the Chickahominy, there are no streams, and the country thereabouts is rather level, slightly undulating, with some soft spots and marshes.

LEE is now reinforced by BRECKINRIDGE from the Shenandoah Valley, and BEAUREGARD'S force could also join him on short notice for a battle. Our outlying detachments may also be sent to reinforce GRANT, and, indeed, Secretary STANTON informs us that this is already done.

JOHNSTON'S RETREAT.—A rebel letter from Atlanta, dated the 17th inst., says that "JOHNSTON is falling back gradually, drawing the enemy (SHERMAN) along, waiting for ——, and trying to get a good battle-ground." The blank for whom JOHNSTON was waiting was, most probably, Bishop LEONIDAS POLK and his forces, who, for the last year, have been flitting around Alabama and Mississippi, ready for any work that might turn up—ready to defend Mobile, to threaten Vicksburgh, to enter Tennessee in the wake of FORREST—ready for everything, but never accomplishing anything. There is evidence that shortly after the date of the above letter, Blank POLK did actually succeed in joining JOHNSTON, who, however, even after this reinforcement, still continues to "fall back gradually, drawing SHERMAN along," and who, up to the close of last week, was still in search of a "good battle-ground." We would like to know what old JOHNSTON considers a good battle-ground. Was he not satisfied with his position on the heights of Ringgold? What could he find equal to Tunnel Hill, Rocky-faced Ridge, and Buzzard Roost? What could be superior to Resaca, or the mountain fastness of Altoona? What better than the line of the Coosa, or the Etowah? He has, in turn, left all these and other equally tremendous and all but impregnable natural strongholds, and our army has now chased him to within a few miles of Atlanta, which, being in a level country, will furnish a "good battle-ground" for us, but a very bad one for him. "Beware of LEE on the advance, and of JOHNSTON on the retreat," it has been said; but certainly, so far, there has been nothing to be frightened at in this retreat of JOHNSTON. Even the holy blank has not helped him.

The Sentence of Kohnstamm.

SALOMON KOHNSTAMM was yesterday sentenced to an imprisonment of ten years in the State Prison for fraud upon the Government. It was the severest sentence affixed by law to the crime of which he had been convicted; and certainly it would be difficult to find a case, the circumstances of which would warrant a severer punishment, than those of this one, as depicted by Judge NELSON in passing sentence upon the culprit. A long continued course of deliberate crime, whose successful prosecution made necessary the careful planning of fraud and the continual employment of perjury, on the part of a man whose intelligence and standing in the community precluded the idea of his being a tool of others, and who was not led away by the stress of sudden temptation, but was rather the tempter of others,—the leader in an immense series of frauds upon the Government, such as everywhere have helped to make its wheels drive heavily during all the past three laborious years,—has thus found its fit end at last.

We congratulate the community upon the fact. It is a sign of better things to come. As in the sentence of GORDON we saw the assurance of the near end of that infamous slave traffic which had disgraced our City, so in this sentence we trust we see the end of these atrocious and enormous frauds which stain the otherwise bright pages of the record of the patriotism of the North.

We cannot but wonder that the matter should have come to such an end. The man must have been infatuated. He had got three or four hundred thousand dollars from the Government by these frauds, as we are informed; he knew the penalty of the offence; he must have known what the testimony would be against him; and yet he allowed himself to go to trial, and, as we understand, was confident of escaping until the jury came in with their verdict against him. What could he have been thinking of? Perhaps he thought that money and influence would secure him indemnity. If so, he has learned by this time that there are some things that money cannot buy. It is a remarkable instance of that foolhardiness which sometimes accompanies crime, and is one of the means of insuring its punishment.

We trust that the impressive words of Judge NELSON, in his sentence of the prisoner, may be everywhere read and pondered, and that the case may be the means of leading many to choose aright "between a life of transgression and crime, and that of virtue, respectability and honor."

Our Ability to Pay Taxes.

The London Economist and the Saturday Review—neither of them at all partial to this country—have taken occasion lately to call attention to an important economical fact, developed by this war—the immense wealth of the population of the Free States. The Economist, in a recent able article on the subject of our "ability to bear taxation," demonstrates, as if against the popular opinion of England, our capacity to bear easily $600,000,000 annual taxation. The writer states that the great peculiarity of American society has not been understood in Europe,—that is, the large number o people with an income say of $500.f There are not, he admits, a body of men, representing, for instance, such an amount of property as is represented by the British Parliament, but there are a far larger number of small property-holders with taxable incomes than in England. Reckoning the average wage of the American laborers and small farmers at $1 50 a day, which he believes to be a low estimate, and the number of families in the Union at five and a half millions, he thinks the wage-income of America would be equal to the property-income o Great Britain. The income of our middle class he estimates as equal to that of thef British middle class, though the former possesses less accumulated property. Suppose a tax laid corresponding to the English, of three shillings on the pound, he concludes that £120,000,000 could be raised here from direct taxes, without counting the indirect taxes on luxuries. With respect to the willingness of our people to pay, he entertains little doubt that where a debt is so universally held and where a population is so well off, the tax would be paid with but little grumbling. He does not see why an American "farmer" or artisan should not be willing to pay for the American nationality or dignity, or safety, or whatever we consider it, as much as the British banker's clerk for the British—namely, three shillings on the pound. Grumblings there would be, but there are grumblings also from English rate-payers, and yet the poorest pay with little opposition. There might be many difficulties in collecting, but experience and ingenuity would gradually perfect modes of raising the taxes which would be the most effective and the least annoying. And, as he justly argues, it is hard to fix a limit to the amount of indirect taxes on luxuries which might be raised from so rich a people. His final candid conclusion is that the European public have not at all estimated correctly the American ability to bear taxation.

We are glad that so eminent a financial authority as the Economist has admitted what has long been claimed by the financiers of America—the immense productiveness of labor and consequent wealth of America. A foreign traveler in our Union, not seeing so much of the signs of accumulated wealth, though finding every mark of individual well-being, is disposed to underrate the national wealth. But it must be borne in mind that the immensely larger proportion of the wealth of every country is produced each year. The profits of the annual labor in America are immense. We have always understood here that the capacity of this country to bear taxation and thus pay debts, could hardly be measured. With a wise system of taxation, falling especially upon luxuries and large objects; a steady accumulation by fixed legislation of a sinking fund each year, and the raising money for the war as little as possible by currency, and as much as possible by loans, we shall bear even two thousand millions of debt as easily as poorer countries in Europe bear their hundreds of thousands. The whole people own the debt. They are willing to pay anything for their nationality. They are rich enough to endure immense taxation. Who can doubt both their financial ability and their final financial success?

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatches to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Monday, May 30.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs considered at length, to-day, the correspondence between Mr. SEWARD and the French Government relative to the resolution which passed the House on Mexican affairs. The committee are inclined to the opinion that Congress has the right to indicate what policy our Government should pursue in regard to the French in Mexico.

GRANT'S NEW BASE.

Several transports laden with army supplies left here this morning for the White House on the Pamunky River.

OPERATIONS OF A SCOUTING PARTY.

A scouting party sent out from Alexandria by Provost-Marshal WELLS, under command of Capt. LUSK, returned on Saturday. The party proceeded as far as Dumfries, on Quantico Creek, where they captured several notorious guerrillas and blockade-runners, routed a party of guerrillas, and destroyed a large quantity of stores, consisting in part of flour, coffee, bacon, salt, and several hundred pairs of boots and shoes. The party returned without the loss of a man.

IMPORTANT TO DRAFTED MEN.

From the following circular, issued by Provost-Marshal-General FRY, it will be seen that any person liable to the draft may be exempted by furnishing a substitute previous, as well as subsequent, to the draft, and the recruit may be accepted at any place:

WAR DEPARTMENT, PROVOST-MARSHAL-GENERAL'S OFFICE, WASHINGTON, May 26, 1864.

CIRCULAR No. 19.—The following opinion of Hon. WILLIAM WHITING, Solicitor of the War Department, is published for the information and guidance of all officers of this board relative to furnishing substitutes previous to draft.

OPINION.

The act of Feb. 24, 1864, section four, provides that any person enrolled under the provisions of the act for enrolling and calling out the national forces, and for other purposes, approved March 3, 1863, or who may be hereafter so enrolled, may furnish at any time previous to the draft an acceptable substitute, who is not liable to the draft, nor at the time in the military or naval service of the United States; and such person so furnishing a substitute shall be exempted from draft during the time for which such substitute shall not be liable to draft, not exceeding the time for which such substitute shall have been accepted.

Two persons liable to draft in Worcester, Mass., where they reside, offer substitutes to the Provost-Marshal at Washington, with the request that they may be accepted and mustered in, and duly reported to the Provost-Marshal of the Eighth Massachusetts District, so as to entitle the persons offering them to the exemption provided for by statute.

There is no objection in law to the reception of these substitutes, under such rules and regulations as may be provided for the protection of the interests of the United States, as well as that of the person enrolled in the military forces.

It is equally beneficial to the service to accept substitutes in Washington as in Massachusetts. I see no reason why the request should not be granted.

JAMES B. FRY, Provost-Marshal-General.

NAVY-YARD ON THE THAMES RIVER, CONN.

The House Naval Committee has agreed to a bill providing that the Secretary of the Navy shall appoint an engineer to designate and survey lands upon the Thames River, Conn., for a navy-yard and naval depot for the construction and repair of iron-clads, &c., the City of New-London to give the land necessary therefor.

AIR LINE RAILROAD AGAIN.

The House Select Committee on the Air Line Railroad between Washington and New-York will report their own bill, which differs materially from the Senate Bill. The Senate will not accept the House Bill, and thus the scheme may be defeated altogether.

TAX UPON BANK NOTES.

A committee on conference will probably be called upon to report a tax upon bank notes, &c.

REPAIRS OF HARBORS.

The bill for repairs of harbors on lakes passed to-day appropriates $250,000 to be expended by the Secretary of War. It also appropriates $100,000 for Atlantic harbors.

WOUNDED OFFICERS.

The following wounded officers reported to-day at the Medical Director's office: Capt. JOS. J. GOULD, First Rhode Island Cavalry; Capt. WALLACE A. PUTNAM, Fifty-sixth Massachusetts Volunteers; Capt. LEWIS E. MONROE, Fifty-ninth do.; Lieut. HARRY L. SWORDS, do. do.; Capt. E. T. TAIS, One Hundred and Fifty-seventh Pennsylvania Volunteers.

The following wounded officers, belonging to New-York regiments, have reported at Surgeon ANTISELL'S office for treatment:

Lieut. Chas. Soule, Co. B, 64th.
Lieut. Daniel Crowley, Co. B, 164th.
Lieut. Nathan Appleton, A. D. C.
Capt. Frank Chamberlain, 125th.
Lieut. Anson Heffron, Co. A, 24th Cavalry.
Lieut. J. F. Nunan, Co. B, 2d.
Lieut. T. C. Cuse, A. D. C. to Gen. Griffin.

DEATHS OF SOLDIERS.

The following New-York soldiers died in hospital on Saturday and Sunday:

James McIntyre, Co. K, 49th New-York.
Henry C. Morris, Co. K, 39th New-York.
John C. Vermilyea, Co. K, 124th New-York.
Edward S. Fisher, Co. D, 40th New-York.
——— McPage, 39th New-York.
Wm. H. Turner, Co. C, Independent New-York Battery.
Alva White, Co. C, 97th New-York.

Dispatches to the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Monday, May 30.

GENS. CANBY AND BANKS.

All the troops in the field, in the Department of the Gulf and west of the Mississippi River, not including Missouri, are to be commanded by Maj.-Gen. CANBY. BANKS has been appointed Military Governor of Louisiana, with headquarters at New-Orleans.

ARRIVAL OF ARGUELLES AT HAVANA.

The Captain-General of Cuba announces the arrival of ARGUELLES at Havana, in the custody of the Spanish Agent. The Captain-General, in his letter, returns thanks to Mr. Seward for the service he has rendered to humanity, by furnishing the medium through which a great number of men will obtain their emancipation, whom the escape of ARGUELLES would have reduced to Slavery. The Captain-General adds, that the simple presence of ARGUELLES, on his return to this island, has already, and in a few minutes, given liberty to eighty-six human beings.

ARRIVAL OF CONTRABANDS.

This afternoon about one thousand contrabands, two-thirds of them children, arrived here from the neighborhood of the recent battle-fields, bringing with them bedding and large bundles of clothing. They separated for various parts of the city in search of homes.

THE TEN-FORTY LOAN.

The subscriptions to the Ten-forty Loan, to-day, reported at the Treasury Department, amounted to nearly a million and a half of dollars.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Monday, May 30.

LAND CLAIMS IN CALIFORNIA.

The bill to expedite the title to land claims in California was called up, and after discussion during the whole of the morning hour, the subject was laid over.

THE TAX BILL.

The Tax Bill then came up.

Mr. CONNESS moved in lieu of the tax of five per cent. on gold and silver, produced from quartz mines, beds of rivers, &c., the following, which was adopted:

On bullion in lump, ingot, bar or otherwise, a duty of one-half of one per centum, ad valorem, to be paid by the assayer of the same, who shall stamp the product of the assay as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall decide; and every and all sales, transfers, exchanges, transportation and exportation of gold or silver assayed at any mint of the United States, or by any private assayer, unless stamped as prescribed by general regulations, as aforesaid, is hereby declared unlawful; and every person or corporation who shall sell or transfer, transport, exchange, export or deal in the same, shall be subject to a penalty of one thousand dollars for each offence, and to a fine not exceeding that sum, and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, nor less than six months. No jeweler, worker or artificer in gold and silver shall use either of those metals except it shall have first been stamped as aforesaid as required by this act, and every violation of this section shall subject the offenders to the penalties contained herein. No person or corporation shall take, transport, or cause to be transported, exported or taken from the United States any gold or silver in its natural state, uncoined or unassayed, and unstamped as aforesaid, and for every violation of the provision, every offender shall be subject to the penalties contained herein.

Mr. SHERMAN, of Ohio, (Union,) offered an amendment to the clause in the Tax Bill relative to banking, as a substitute for the Finance Committee's amendment.

It provides for a tax of one-twenty-fourth of one per cent. per month on the average amount of deposits; one-twenty-fourth of one per cent. per month upon the average amount of capital stock; and one-fifth of one per cent. per month on circulation of banking institutions, &c., other than those organized under the National Banking Law.

Mr. HENDRICKS, of Indiana, (Dem.,) did not see anything to justify the Secretary in attempting to strike down the State Banks. As far as Indiana was concerned, her people and the people of the West would prefer the notes of her State banks to the issues of Secretary CHASE, and yet the circulation of those banks had been reduced from five millions eight hundred thousand to two millions four hundred thousand dollars.

Mr. SHERMAN argued in favor of legislating State bank circulation out of existence during the existence of the present state of the Government. He held that to allow the State banks to inflate their currency was a direct blow at the very vitals of the Government. He held that the National Bank circulation was adequate for all purposes, and was founded upon public faith.

At 4½ o'clock, on motion of Mr. FESSENDEN, the Senate took a recess till 11 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

THE TAX BILL.

Mr. CLARK, of New-Hampshire, (Union,) moved various amendments in order to retain the present official heads in the Revenue Bureau, Assessors, &c., without the requisite of new bonds, which were adopted.

Mr. CLARK also offered an amendment as follows: "On tobacco manufactured in the leaf with all the stems in, and not having been stripped, budded or sweetened, 25 cents; on stripped tobacco as cavendish that has been sweetened, including fine cut, 35 cents per pound."

The consideration of this amendment was postponed, several Senators desiring to speak upon it.

Mr. SHERMAN'S amendment in reference to banks was then considered. He modified the tax on circulation to one-sixth of one per centum per month, instead of one fifth.

Mr. HENDRICKS opposed the amendment of Mr. SHERMAN. He considered it improper in a revenue bill to strike at any peculiar interest of the States, as this bill did strike with this amendment. The currency of the West had heretofore been so good that there was but little difference in exchange. He was opposed to driving from the channels of trade a currency in which the people of the West had confidence, and substitute a currency in which they had less confidence. This was arbitrary legislation. The value of our bonds, though now above par, depended upon our ability to pay the interest on them. When there was no demand for bonds, and hard times came, what was the value of the currency?

Mr. POWELL said, what he had predicted at first in regard to this system of paper currency had been fulfilled, and none of the financial tinkering of Secretary CHASE would relieve us from the effects of his odious system of paper currency. It was rotten to the very core, and would result in injury to any Government that adopted it. Secretary CHASE, in his financial measures, seemed determined on adopting exploded notions, and discarding all the sound and recognized principles of currency. He denounced the system as the worst species of wild-cat banking.

At 10 o'clock P. M. the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WASHINGTON, Monday, May 30.

On motion of Mr. PENDLETON, of Ohio, (Dem.,) the Select Committee on the subject of admitting members of the Cabinet to seats on the floor of the House was continued during the present Congress.

THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT.

On motion of Mr. DAVIS, of New-York, (Union,) the Committee on the District of Columbia was instructed to inquire into the condition of the Washington National Monument Society, amounts collected and sums expended, and its affairs generally.

THE WAR AND RECONSTRUCTION.

The House resumed the consideration of the following resolution, heretofore submitted by Mr. ROLLINS, of Missouri:

Resolved, That prompted by a just patriotism, we are in favor of an earnest and successful prosecution of the war, and that we will give a warm and hearty support to all those measures which will be most effective in speedily overcoming the rebellion, and in securing a restoration of peace, and which may not substantially infringe on the Constitution, and tend to subvert the true theory and character of the Government; we hereby reiterate that the present deplorable civil war has been forced upon the country by the disunionists now in revolt against the constitutional Government, that in the progress of the war Congress, banishing all feelings of mere passion or resentment, will recollect only its duty to the whole country. This war is not waged on our part in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, nor for the purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of those States, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution and to preserve the Union with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired. That as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease.

Mr. ROLLINS said his resolution embraced the main features of the one offered by Mr. CRITTENDEN, and adopted with only two dissenting voices, at the commencement of the Thirty-seventh Congress. He believed that the principle was right at that time and was right now. It was the platform on which he stood at the beginning, and on which every patriot could safely stand, and afforded a rallying-point for all friends of the Union and of constitutional liberty. If there ever was a time for unity of action to preserve our happy form of government, it was now that we should rise above all mere party consideration. It was idle for us to underrate the warlike qualities of the Southern people. These have been exhibited on many a well-fought field. They have attested their valor, and wrung from us the acknowledgment of a steady devotion to the cause in which they are engaged. If we can boast of our GRANT, MCCLELLAN, SHERMAN, THOMAS and HANCOCK, they can boast of their LEE, JOHNSTON, HILL and EWELL. We cannot expect peace until the rebel armies are overcome, and then we must arrange terms and conditions as other nations have done in order to secure lasting repose. We should conduct this war in the spirit enumerated in his resolution. If the policy declared in the Crittenden proposition had been adhered to we should now be near the end of the rebellion. We should have carried the Constitution and olive branch in one hand, and the sword in the other. But by departing from that policy we had made a cause for the rebels, and united them in unbroken phalanx. No punishment was too severe for the authors and leaders of this causeless rebellion, but we should discriminate between them and those who had been misled, and abandon all confiscation and legalized plunder schemes which would establish serfdom in the South, and create a necessity for standing armies to keep the peace and prevent revolt. Some had gone so far as to seek to elevate the negro to the level of the white race in the scale of being. He could regard such persons only as madmen.

Mr. FERNANDO WOOD, of New-York, (Dem.,) unsuccessfully sought to amend the resolution. The opportunity for that purpose having been excluded by the previous question, he moved that the resolution be laid on the table.

This motion was disagreed to by yeas 27; nays 114.

Mr. MORRILL, of Vermont, (Union,) moved to refer the resolution to the Committee on the Rebellious States.

Mr. COX, of Ohio, (Dem.,) hoped the House would take a direct vote on the passage of the resolution, and not strangle it by such a disposition of it.

The House then, by a vote of 81 to 27, referred the resolution to the Committee on the Rebellious States.

HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Illinois, (Union,) under a suspension of the rules, reported a bill from the Committee on Commerce, appropriating $250,000 for the repairs and preservation of the works for the benefit of commerce on the lakes, and $100,000 for similar purposes on the seaboard.

The bill was passed.

THE PUNISHMENT OF GUERRILLAS.

Mr. SCHENCK, of Ohio, (Union,) moved a suspension of the rules in order to report a bill providing for the summary punishment of guerrillas.

Commanding-Generals or Commanders of departments, are authorized to carry into execution all sentences against guerrillas and persons guilty of arson, burglary, rape, and for violation of the laws and custions of war, and to punish spies, mutineers, murderers, deserters, &c.

The House refused to suspend the rules, by a vote of 79 to 42—not two-thirds voting therefor.

YEAS—Messrs. Alley, Allison, Ames, Arnold, Bailey, Baldwin of Massachusetts, Baxter, Beaman, Blaine, Blair of West Virginia, Boyd, Brandagee, Clark, Cobb, Cole, Cresswell, Davis of New-York, Dawes, Denning, Donnelly, Driggs, Eckley, Eliot, Farnsworth, Fenton, Frank, Garfield, Grinnell, Griswold, Higby, Hotchkiss, Hubbard of Iowa, Hubbard of Connecticut, Hulburd, Ingersoll, Jenckes, Kasson, Kellogg of Michigan, Kellogg of New-York, Loan, Longyear, Marvin, McClurg, Miller of New-York, Morrill, Morris of New-York, Amos Myers, Leonard Myers, O'Neill of Pennsylvania, Orth, Patterson, Perham, Pomeroy, Price, Randall of Kentucky, Rice of Massachusetts, Rice of Maine, Rollins of New-Hampshire, Schenck, Scofield, Shannon, Smith, Smithers, Spaulding, Thayer, Thomas, Tracy, Upson, Van Valkenburgh, Washburne of Illinois, Washburn of Massachusetts, Webster, Whaley, Williams, Wilder, Wilson, Windom, Woodbridge.

NAYS—Messrs. James C. Allen, Ancona, Baldwin of Michigan, Brooks, Brown of Wisconsin, Chanler, Cox, Cravens, Dawson, Dennison, Eden, Edgerton, Eldridge, Finck, Ganson, Harding, Harrington, Herrick, Johnson of Pennsylvania, Johnson of Ohio, Kernan, Knapp, Law, Leblond, Long, Mallory, Marcy, Noble, Odell, Pruyn, Radford, Randall of Pennsylvania, Rollins of Missouri, Ross, Scott, Steele of New-York, Stiles, Sweat, Wadsworth, C. A. White, Fernando Wood.

THE MARQUETTE AND ONTONAGON RAILROAD.

Mr. ENGLISH, of Connecticut, (Dem.,) from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill, which was passed, extending the time fixed in the act of June, 1856, for commencing the construction of the Marquette and Ontonagon Railroad, in Michigan, for which the public lands were at that period appropriated.

THE KENTUCKY CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.

The House then resumed the consideration of the Kentucky contested election case of MCHENRY against YEAMAN.

Mr. HARDING, of Kentucky, (Dem.,) said, while he would vote for his colleague to retain his seat, he did not wish to be understood as giving countenance to military interference with freedom of elections.

Mr. YEAMAN, of Kentucky, (Union,) the sitting member, controverted the position of the contestant that he (YEAMAN) owed his election to military interference, and spoke of the contestant as having, with bad taste, resurrected all the political trash in the history of Kentucky to support his (the contestant's) claim.

The House, by a vote of 96 yeas against 26 nays, adopted the resolution declaring Mr. YEAMAN entitled to retain his seat.

REBEL SOLDIERS IN HOSPITALS.

On motion of Mr. COLE, California, (Union,) it was resolved that the Committee on Military Affairs be instructed to inquire by what authority and under whose direction the rebels are interspersed with the national soldiers throughout the various hospitals of this city, and as to the comparative treatment of the rebel and Union soldiers in the hospitals; and also, that the same committee be instructed to inquire whether or not persons lately in the rebel army are employed in places of trust and profit by the United States Government at Giesboro' Point, Md., and if so, by whose authority, how many, and in what capacity they are so employed; and also, that the same committee be instructed to inquire whether any disloyal persons are employed as clerks in any of the departments of the Government; if so, who are responsible for such employment—and that the committee have authority to send for persons and papers, to compel the attendance of witnesses, and to report the facts to this House at any time.

PEACE TWADDLE.

Mr. LAZEAR, of Pennsylvania, (Dem.,) offered a long preamble, concluding with a resolution, that the President be required to adopt measures for the suspension of hostilities between the North and the South, and an armistice, in order that, in the meantime, a convention may be called of all the States, with a view to the restoration of the Union with their constitutional rights.

Objection was made to the resolution, when Mr. LAZEAR moved a suspension of the rules, pending which the House adjourned.

"Best Bitters." * * * * * * * *

From Hon. J. A. McDougall, United States Senator from California.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 3, 1863.

Messrs. W. Chilton & Co.:

You wish to know the medicinal effects of Romaine's Crimean Bitters, as experienced by myself. I very cheerfully comply with your request.

They are excellent for digestion, correcting diarrhœa, nausea, irritation of the stomach, and for the creation of a wholesome appetite. They pleasantly exhilarate, but followed by no stupefying reaction, and are extremely palatable.

In all respects they are the BEST BITTERS I have ever used.

Respectfully yours,
J. A. McDOUGALL.

THE GOVERNMENT LOAN
OF
$200,000,000.

THIS LOAN IS AUTHORIZED by Act of Congress of March 8, 1864, which provides for its REDEMPTION IN COIN, at any period not less than ten or more than forty years from its date, at the pleasure of the Government.

UNTIL ITS REDEMPTION, five per cent. interest is to be paid semi-annually, IN COIN.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE LOAN are received by the National Banks in United States notes, or in such currency or other funds as are taken by them on deposit at par.

ITS EXEMPTION FROM STATE OR LOCAL TAXATION adds from one to three per cent. per annum to its value.

THE RATE OF INTEREST on this loan, although but five per cent. in coin, is as much greater in currency as the difference between the market value of currency and gold.

AS A RULE, the five per cent. specie securities of all solvent Governments are always at par or above, and currency now funded in the National Loan will be worth its face in gold, besides paying a regular and liberal per centage to the holder.

THE AUTHORIZED AMOUNT of this loan is two Hundred Million Dollars. The amount of subscriptions reported to the Treasury at Washington, during April and May, has been over $60,000,000.

SUBSCRIPTIONS WILL BE RECEIVED by the Treasurer of the United States at Washington, and the Assistant Treasurers at New-York, Boston and Philadelphia, and by the First National Bank of New-York, No. 4 Wall-st.

Second National Bank of New-York, 23d-st. and Broadway.

AND BY ALL NATIONAL BANKS
which are depositaries of public money, and all RESPECTABLE BANKS AND BANKERS
throughout the country, (acting as agents of the National Depositary Banks,) will furnish further information on application and AFFORD EVERY FACILITY TO SUBSCRIBERS.

THE DRAFT POSTPONED.

TWELVE HUNDRED VOLUNTEERS WANTED.

A CHANCE FOR PATRIOTS!

It having been determined that the City of New-York is deficient only TWELVE HUNDRED AND SEVENTEEN men, in its quota under the President's call for 200,000 men, the Draft has been postponed for a few days, in order to enable the filling of the quota, if possible, by volunteering.

The County Volunteer Committee now appeal to the patriotism of the citizens of this County to aid them in raising the Twelve Hundred and Seventeen Men needed, and thus save the County from the misfortune of a Draft.

The County Volunteer Committee will pay the following bounties until further notice:

FOR ARMY RECRUITS	$300
FOR MARINES	300
FOR NAVAL RECRUITS FOR THREE YEARS	300
FOR NAVAL RECRUITS FOR TWO YEARS	200
FOR NAVAL RECRUITS FOR ONE YEAR	100

A County premium of $10 will also be paid for bringing an army recruit to this office, in addition to the Government premium of $10, and a County premium of $20 will be paid for bringing a naval recruit.

Let the citizens of New-York make one grand and final rally to save us from the impending draft.

IK MARVELS NEW BOOK.

SEVEN STORIES, WITH BASEMENT AND ATTIC.

By IK MARVEL. 1 vol., 12mo. Uniform with "My Farm." Price $1 75.

The Springfield Republican says:

"The Seven Stories are all charming—a happy blending of truth and fiction—foliage of fancy trained upon a trellis of fact. The Basement and Attic are neatly-drawn sketches. The "Wet Day at an Irish Inn" is a romance in miniature. The "Account of a Consulate" is full of quiet humor, &c., and the whole pleasant book commends itself."

FLOWERS FOR THE PARLOR AND GARDEN.

Now that the Spring sun is moving into life and blossom the new comers in another floral campaign we cannot in justice omit to call the attention of our lady readers to a very beautiful volume which was published in the dead of Winter for their especial benefit. The book itself is a flower—a gem of typographical beauty. Certainly no handsomer guide-book for the cultivation of flowers has ever been published in this country. It is as fresh and pleasant to look upon as are the arbutus blossoms which are now putting forth their white and pink bells in token of Spring. Mr. Edward Rand, Jr., could not have put his name upon a more memorable page than upon the title-leaf of his exquisite book upon the culture of flowers. No space is occupied with useless poetical quotations and rhapsodies, but everything is plain, practical and valuable. It is just what it professes to be, a guide-book for the garden. Every lady can own it, and feel assured that she is, for one, favoring nothing of politics, war, or sensation literature. She has that which can make every one happier and the world brighter. Of course, those ladies who are too exquisite to cultivate flowers will not care for its instructions, but every true woman who would make home pleasanter, more genial and cheerful, and herself more refined in the highest sense of the word, will welcome any help in the culture of her flowers.—The Round Table.

THE LIFE AND TIMES
OF
BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.
By JAMES PARTON.
THE FIRST COMPLETE BIOGRAPHY
OF
THE GREAT AMERICAN PHILOSOPHER AND DIPLOMATIST EVER PUBLISHED.
2 Vols., Crown 8vo., 1,334 pages, Steel Portraits.
Price $5.

The frequent publication of Dr. Franklin's Autobiography has deterred any writer hitherto from attempting a complete and thorough biography of this truly great and distinguished man. No one ever left to the world a record more rich in the requisite material for a most entertaining and instructive history of his life, and the wonder is that so many years should have elapsed before its presentation to us in a connected and systematic form.

The story of Franklin's career, as it presents itself to the investigations of another, has remained to this day untold; and one who would know it in all its fullness of interest and beauty—one who would see Franklin as others saw him, which is biography—must read ten volumes, and consult two hundred. In the composition of the present work, the autobiography has been regarded only in the light of "material." Autobiography is one of the most interesting and valuable kinds of composition, but autobiography can never be accepted in lieu of biography, because to no man is the giftie given of seeing himself as others see him. Dr. Franklin, moreover, assures us that as he wrote his autobiography for the instruction of youth, he omitted "all facts and transactions that may not have a tendency to benefit the young reader."

The object of this biography is simply to render a knowledge of the benign and noble life of Dr. Franklin more accessible to his countrymen.

DIABETES.
STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES
AFTER URINATING.
IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS,
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER.
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of the Constitution Water will relieve you like magic.

PHYSICIANS
have long since given up the use of buchu, cubebs and juniper in the treatment of these diseases, and only use them for the want of a better remedy.

CONSTITUTION WATER
has proved itself equal to the task that has devolved upon it.

DIURETICS
irritate and drench the kidneys, and by constant use soon lead to chronic degeneration and confirmed disease.

We present the Constitution Water to the public, with the conviction that it has no equal in relieving the class of diseases for which it has been found so eminently successful for curing; and we trust that we shall be rewarded for our efforts in placing so valuable a remedy in a form to meet the requirements of patient and physician.

IN DYSMENORRHŒA, OR PAINFUL MENSTRUATION, AND MENORRHAGIA, OR PROFUSE FLOWING

Both diseases arising from a faulty secretion of the menstrual fluid—in one case being too little, and accompanied by severe pain, and the other a too profuse secretion, which will be speedily cured by the Constitution Water.

That disease known as FALLING OF THE WOMB, which is the result of a relaxation of the ligaments of that organ, and is known by a sense of heaviness and dragging pains in the back and sides, and at times accompanied by sharp, lancinating or shooting pains through the parts, will, in all cases, be removed by the medicine.

There is another class of symptoms arising from IRRITATION OF THE WOMB, which physicians call Nervousness, which word covers up much ignorance, and in nine cases out of ten the doctor does not really know whether the symptoms are the disease or the disease the symptoms. We can only enumerate them here. I speak more particularly of Cold Feet, Palpitation of the Heart, Imperfect Memory, Wakefulness, Flashes of Heat, Languor, Lassitude and Dimness of Vision.

SUPPRESSED MENSTRUATION.
Which, in the unmarried female, is a constant recurring disease, and through neglect the seeds of more grave and dangerous maladies are the result; and as month after month passes without an effort being made to assist nature, the suppression becomes chronic, the patient gradually losses her appetite, the bowels are constipated, night sweats come on, and consumption finally ends her career.

THE CASE OF HUTCHINGS, THE "LIGHTNING CALCULATOR."

There was published in these columns a few days since the remarkable cure of Hutchings, the "Lightning Calculator," so well known to the public during the many years he exhibited his wonderful arithmetical powers at Barnum's Museum, by the celebrated Oculist and Aurist, Dr. Von Eisenberg, of this City. Hutchings is represented to have been at the point of death, and but for the timely interference of the Doctor, would now be resting in his grave. This is a remarkable case, and worthy of the attention of persons similarly afflicted.

We think it is but just to Doctor Von Eisenberg to call public attention to this case. There are hundreds in the community suffering from catarrh, who, like the "Lightning Calculator," if not actually praying for death, are ready to accept of anything that promises to relieve them from their distresses. To such we would say, trifle not with inexperienced men, but consult, without unnecessary delay, Dr. Von Eisenberg, who, at least, has the honesty to assure his patients whether it is within his power to make them whole or not.

EARS TO THE DEAF.

Every man, and especially every woman, believes in his or her physician. There are philosophical minds which hold to an abstract faith in Allopathy, or Homeopathy, or Hydropathy, or some other form of scientific cure; but with the world at large the belief is not in the system, but in the doctor. Especially is this true as regards aurists and oculists. The patient who has recovered his sight or his hearing is sure that the blessing could have been restored to him by no other practitioner than that particular one by whom his eyes or ears were opened. Dr. Von Eisenberg is among our best-known aurists. He has not lent us ears as a brother practitioner has eyes, and in whose skill, therefore, we believe above all others. But we hear of him from those who esteem him not merely as a surgeon, but as a benefactor. A recent case has been related to us, for the truthfulness of which we can vouch, though we can name no names. The patient was a lady who had been deaf from infancy, as a consequence of some of the ailments to which children are liable. Latterly the disease had taken an acute form, and the patient was subject to intense suffering. The deafness was rapidly becoming complete, and the general health breaking down under the physical exhaustion attendant upon constant pain. Ordinary remedies and ordinary advice were useless, and Dr. Von Eisenberg was called in. We need not repeat his diagnosis, for that would be only a list of hard names to the general reader. But he detected at sight the seat of disease, first in one portion of the organism, then in another, and with manipulation as skillful as his insight was accurate, he removed the causes, and she who, from infancy, had heard with difficulty, and latterly hardly at all, was restored first to perfect hearing and then to perfect health. Dr. Von Eisenberg's advertisement reminds us of this case, which we thus briefly relate, though not at his solicitation. Let him that hath not ears, hear.

From the Christian Times.
SIGHT RESTORED.
CONCERNING EYES AND OCULISTS.

Of the five senses, that which we call seeing is the most important and most valued. In proportion as this sense fails us, we are reduced to helplessness. If entirely destitute of sight, how slow would be our progress in knowledge, and how limited our sphere of action and usefulness. Endowed with it, the universe becomes a new creation, clothed with beauty and diversified by that infinite variety which never fails to attract the mind and heart.

For several months past this has been a practical subject to us. An inflamed condition of the eyelids communicating itself to the pupil, rendered the discharge of daily duties not only painful, but dangerous. Attributing it to the effect of a cold, we endured it through the Spring, with the hope that with the return of warm weather it would entirely disappear. But in this we were doomed to disappointment. Summer returned, but not our wonted sight. What might have been the result, either of further neglect or of incompetent treatment, we cannot say.

Stating our case to a friend, he assured us that a similar one in his own family had recently been treated with entire success by Dr. Von Eisenberg, of this City. Satisfying ourselves by more particular inquiries that the doctor is no empiric, but a scientific oculist and aurist, we concluded to seek the benefits of his treatment, which we have now reason to acknowledge is very great. Though but a few weeks under his care, the appearance of our eyes has totally changed. The pupil is now full and clear, and the lids are entirely free from inflammation. The doctor says that the optic nerve has been weakened and the retina assumed a chronic, inflammatory state, affecting more or less all the other tissues, and threatening, if neglected, to end in Amaurosis. Opthalmitis, is the term we believe, which oculists apply to eyes affected as were ours. Having obtained the much desired relief, we take great pleasure in acknowledging our indebtedness to the talent of Dr. Von Eisenberg, and of calling to it the attention of others who may be suffering from a similar or even worse condition of their eyes. It is said that Providence provides an antidote for every bane. It is certain that the eye is, in these times, subject to severer trials than formerly. Let us be thankful, then, that as we increase the tendencies which destroy the organ of vision, the progress of science keeps pace with these tendencies, if not in advance of them.

5,000 RECRUITS WANTED
FOR THE NAVY AND MARINE CORPS.

COUNTY BOUNTY OF $200 AND $100,
CASH DOWN FOR SAILORS,
AND
$300 FOR MARINES AND PRIZE MONEY.

THE UNITED STATES AUTHORITIES HAVING, in order to fill up the navy and Marine Corps, authorized the raising of recruits for that branch of the service, and guaranteed that recruits for the navy and Marine Corps shall be counted on the quotas of the places where they elect to be credited, the same as if they were recruits for the army, the County Volunteer Committee have resolved to pay recruits for the navy and Marine Corps the following bounty, cash down, upon their being duly mustered into the service:

When enlisting for one year in the navy	$100
When enlisting for more than one year in the navy	$200
When enlisting for Marine Corps	$300

ANY PERSON BRINGING A RECRUIT FOR THE NAVY OR MARINE CORPS TO THIS OFFICE WILL RECEIVE A COUNTY PREMIUM OF $20.

PAY OF THE U. S. MARINE CO
Grade.

First or Orderly Sergeant	$20 per month.
All other Sergeants, each	17 per month.
Corporals	13 per month.
Drummers and Fifers	12 per month.
Privates in Barracks at Navy-yard	13 per month.
Privates at Sea	14 50 per month.

Seamen and ordinary seamen, who will be shipped for two years, will receive, in addition to the above bounty of $200, three months' pay in advance, and three months' extra pay as Government bounty.

The rates of wages are as follows:

First-class Firemen	$30 per month.
Second-class Firemen	25 per month.
Coal-passers	18 per month.
Seamen	18 per month.
Ordinary Seamen	14 per month.
Landsmen	12 per month.
Boys	10 per month.

Boys will not be taken unless they are sixteen years of age, stout, in good health, and not below four feet eight inches in height. In all cases the consent of the parents or guardians must be first obtained.

The county bounty and the three months advance pay will be paid to all recruits, irrespective of class; and half-monthly pay can be left at home by application to the Paymasters of the vessels to which the recruits may be assigned.

All needful information can be obtained by applying at the Naval tent in the Park, and persons can be enlisted and sworn in at either of the following rendezvous, which are the only ones authorized by the Navy Department in this City.

All recruits thus enlisted, and receiving the bounties aforesaid, will be credited to the quota of the City and County of New-York.

CIRCULAR.

GENERAL HEADQUARTERS STATE OF NEW-YORK,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
ALBANY, May 24, 1864.

Officers of Volunteer Regiments from the State of New-York who have left the service by resignation, expiration or term of service, or for other causes, are requested to send at once to these headquarters, their present Post-office address, designating their rank and the Regiment in which they served.

A large number of letters and packages for officers formerly belonging to Regiments from this State, are at this Office, which cannot be forwarded without this information.

The attention of Officers connected with the regiments mustered for two years, is especially called to this circular.

JOHN T. SPRAGUE, Adjutant-General.

STATE OF NEW-YORK,
OFFICE OF THE PAYMASTER-GENERAL,
ALBANY, May 9, 1864.

FOR WANT OF LIKE FACILITIES AS as were afforded me in the Northern and Western Divisions, the men enlisted under the recent calls in the Southern Division of the State (comprising the first ten Congressional Districts) were obliged, most of them, to go to the field without the State bounty. In the recent battles many, whom the Paymaster had not as yet been able to reach in the field, may have been killed.

Widows and others, residing in New-York City and its vicinity, having claims on this office, will, if they call on Maj. ROBERT BENSON, Jr., No. 7 State-street, New-York City, have their papers arranged and forwarded, FREE OF EXPENSE.

JOHN D. VAN BUREN,
Paymaster-General.

AUCTION SALES.

ADJOURNED SALE
in consequence of the inclement weather.
JAMES M. MILLER, Auctioneer, No. 28 Pine-st.
FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION,
ON TUESDAY, MAY 31, 1864,
At 1 o'clock P. M., on the premises, in the town of
SCARSDALE, WESTCHESTER COUNTY,
THE HERDSDALE TRACT,
CONTAINING ABOUT
440 ACRES OF CHOICE LAND,
In parcels of from 10 to 50 acres each, on some of which are farm-houses and out-buildings.

This tract was selected by the subscriber with reference to its desirability for villa sites as well as for its productiveness as a farm, and on which he has made improvements and arranged the plots in such divisions as will give to each parcel a commanding view without interfering with the others. The situation is on a ridge of table-land from three to four hundred feet above the level of tide-water, commanding extensive views of Long Island Sound, with glimpses of the Palisades, distant about one and a quarter miles east of the Scarsdale station on the Harlem Railroad. The whole tract is valued at the minimum price of $250 per acre, and each parcel will be put up at an upset price corresponding with its relative value, compared with the whole and sold on bids above such sums. Fifty per cent of the purchase money to remain on bond and mortgage for five years at six per cent. In case the purchasers do not wish to build or improve the first year, the subscriber will allow six per cent. on two hundred dollars per acre for agricultural purposes, for all parcels sold above the average price. Conveyances will be at the Scarsdale station on the day of sale, to meet the 8¾ and 10½ A. M. trains from 26th-st., (arriving at 9½ and 11:45 A. M.,) to convey persons to the premises, which will afford ample time to examine the property and partake of a luncheon at 12 M., before the sale, and afterward return to the City by the 4:26 or 6:04 P. M. train.

L. G. MORRIS.

For maps and explanations apply to the auctioneer, No. 28 Pine-st., or to A. FINDLAY, No. 31 Pine-st.

Persons desirous of viewing the premises previous to the day of sale, will find a conveyance at the Scarsdale station, on the arrival of the 8¼ and 10½ A. M. trains from 26th-st.

MEDICAL.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by DR. WARD & CO., No. 61 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 28 years' practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and at less expense than any other can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health, call; it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks, permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. WARD, No. 61 Franklin-st. Call, send, or write.

$1,000 FORFEITED AND NO CHARGE UNLESS CURED.—Dr. Hunter's Red Drop cures venereal diseases when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury; but possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb unless this remedy is used. This is what he claims for it; and what no other will accomplish. Its value in this respect has become so well known that scientific men, in every department of medical knowledge, begin to appreciate it; for hardly a week passes that he is not consulted by druggists, chemists and physicians in regard to some pitiful patient who has exhausted the whole field of the faculty, and still the disease will appear. It is $1 a vial, and cannot be obtained genuine anywhere but at the old office, No. 3 Division st., New-York City, since 1834. Eight separate rooms and a private entrance. A ten cent bill will secure the Monitor of Health by return mail.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR GOUT AND RHEUMATISM.

All sufferers from the above complaints, either of recent or long standing, are advised to use Blair's Gout and Rheumatic Pills. They can be relied upon as the most safe and effectual remedy ever offered to the public, and have been universally used in Europe for many years with the greatest success.

Prepared by PROUT & HARSANT, No. 229 Strand, London, England; and sold by their Agents, F. C. WELLS & CO., 115 Franklin-st., and by most Druggists.

Her Majesty's Commissioners have authorized the name and address of "Thomas Prout, No. 229 Strand, London," to be impressed upon the Government stamp affixed to each box of the genuine medicine.

PROPOSALS.

PROPOSALS FOR FORAGE.

CHIEF QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE, WASHINGTON DEPOT, Dec. 8, 1863. }

SEALED PROPOSALS are invited by the undersigned for supplying the United States Quartermaster's Department, at Washington, D. C., Baltimore, M. D., Alexandria and Fort Monroe, Va., or either of these places, with Hay, Corn, Oats and Straw.

Bids will be received for the delivery of 5,000 bushels of corn or oats, and 50 tons of hay or straw, and upward.

Bidders must state at which of the above-named points they propose to make deliveries, and the rates at which they will make deliveries thereat, the quantity of each article proposed to be delivered, the time when said deliveries shall be commenced, and when to be completed.

The price must be written out in words on the bids.

Corn to be put up in good stout sacks, of about two bushels each. Oats in like sacks, of about three bushels each. The sacks to be furnished without extra charge to the Government. The hay and straw to be securely baled.

The particular kind or description of oats, corn, hay or straw, proposed to be delivered, must be stated in the proposals.

All the articles offered under the bids herein invited, will be subject to a rigid inspection by the Government Inspector before being accepted.

Contracts will be awarded from time to time to the lowest responsible bidder, as the interest of the Government may require, and payment will be made when the whole amount contracted for shall have been delivered and accepted.

The bidder will be required to accompany his proposal with a guarantee, signed by two responsible persons, that in case his bid is accepted, he or they will, within ten days thereafter, execute the contract for the same, with good and sufficient sureties, in a sum equal to the amount of the contract, to deliver the forage proposed in conformity with the terms of this advertisement; and in case the said bidder should fail to enter into the contract, they to make good the difference between the offer of said bidder and the next lowest responsible bidder, or the person to whom the contract may be awarded.

The responsibility of the guarantors must be shown by the official certificate of a United States District-Attorney, Collector of Customs, or any other officer under the United States Government, or responsible person known at this office.

All bidders will be duly notified of the acceptance or rejection of their proposals.

The full name and Post-office address of each bidder must be legibly written in the proposal.

Proposals must be addressed to Brigadier-General D. H. Rucker, Chief Depot Quartermaster, Washington, D. C., and should be plainly marked "Proposals for Forage."

Bonds, in the sum equal to the amount of the contract, signed by the contractor and both of his guarantors, will be required of the successful bidder or bidders upon signing the contract.

Blank forms of bids, guarantees and bonds, may be obtained upon application at this office.

40,000 pounds CRUSHED SUGAR; barrels as above.

20,000 GALLONS of the best quality of PURE VINEGAR, made only from Cider or Whisky, free from all foreign acids and injurious substances, and of a uniform strength, the Whisky Vinegar taking thirty-five grains bi-carbonate of potash to neutralize one ounce troy, the Cider Vinegar as near the same strength as may be; to be put up in half barrels of twenty-two gallons capacity, like samples at this office. Each proposal must state distinctly the kind and quality of Vinegar offered, and the kind of package.

200,000 pounds good hard SOAP, to be made by boiling and only from good materials, free from clay, soluble glass, or other adulteration, to have no unpleasant odor, to contain not more than twenty-five per cent. of water, and to be well dried before being packed.

20,000 pounds PEPPER (Black.) Bidders will please state the variety of pepper, as Sumatra, Singapore, Penang, &c., furnishing samples, and also state the price per pound at which they will have it ground, put up in four-ounce papers, and packed in boxes containing twenty-five pounds.

112,402 gallons of RECTIFIED WHISKY, to be full first-proof, according to the United States Customhouse standard. Barrels to be of good seasoned white oak staves and heads; to have twelve wood and four strong iron hoops, heads and iron hoops painted. Returns required from a Gauger and Inspector to be named by the undersigned.

The goods to be furnished as soon as practicable; bidders are requested to state the time when they can deliver.

Separate proposals, in duplicate, must be made for each article enumerated, and bidders may propose for the whole or any part of each.

Samples of the articles, except the meats, must be delivered with the proposals, and referred to therein. Samples of Rice, Hominy, Tea, Pepper and Sugar must be in neat boxes of card board or tin, fully labeled, and not in paper parcels.

A printed copy of this advertisement must be attached to each proposal, and the proposals must be specific in complying precisely with all the terms. Each bid, to have consideration, must contain the written guarantee of two responsible names, as follows:

"We, the undersigned, hereby guarantee that should all or any part of the above bid be accepted, it shall be duly fulfilled according to its true purport and conditions; also, that a written contract, with bonds to the amount of one-fourth the value of the stores proposed to be furnished, shall be executed, if required."

The seller's name, place of business, and the date of purchase, as well as the name of contents, with gross, tare and net weights, and shipping marks to be hereafter designated, must be plainly marked on every package. All other old marks must be obliterated. All boxes to be strapped with green hickory straps.

Certificates of inspection by professional packers or inspectors, other than the party furnishing the provisions, will be required for all the meats, certifying on the part of the seller their present quality and condition, and the immediately preceding inspection. The meats will also be examined and passed upon by Robert P. Getty, inspector on the part of the United States.

All the stores will be carefully inspected before their delivery, and compared with the retained samples. Returns of weights, signed by the professional Public Weigher, must be furnished.

Payment, as heretofore, to be made in such funds as may be furnished by the United States.

Contractors are expected to hold their goods, without expense to the United States, until required for shipment.

Blanks for Proposals will be furnished at this office, which must be inclosed in an envelope addressed to the undersigned, and indorsed "Proposals for Subsistence Stores."

MUSICAL.

CHICKERING & SONS

MANUFACTURERS OF GRAND, SQUARE, AND UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, No. 652 BROADWAY.—The superiority of these instruments has of late been amply demonstrated by the voluntary testimony of the foremost artists of the day, who claim for them excellencies of tone and workmanship hitherto unobtained by any other makers.

Mr. GOTTSCHALK'S constant use of the NEW SCALE CHICKERING GRAND PIANO-FORTES has severely tested their musical qualities, and resulted in establishing the justice of the very flattering estimation in which they are held.

STEINWAY & SONS'

GOLD MEDAL GRAND AND SQUARE PIANOS are now considered the best in Europe as well as this country, having received the first Prize Medal at the World's Exhibition in London, 1862.

The principal reason why the Steinway Pianos are superior to all others, is, that the firm is composed of five practical pianoforte makers, (father and four sons,) who invent all their own improvements, and under whose personal supervision every part of the instrument is manufactured. Warerooms, Nos. 71 and 73 East 14th-st., between Union-square and Irving-place, New-York.

HAZLETON BROTHERS,

OVERSTRUNG GRAND AND SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MANUFACTURERS,
No. 99 Prince-st., a few doors west of Broadway, N. Y.

These Pianos have always received the first premium wherever they have been exhibited. A written guarantee for five years accompanies each piano.

UNITED PIANO-FORTE MAKERS,

No. 86 Walker-st., New-York. All the stockholders being superior practical workmen, this Company is able TO OFFER PIANOS AT LOWER PRICES THAN ANY OTHER FIRST-CLASS HOUSE. Every instrument guaranteed for five years.

HAINES BROTHERS,

PIANO-FORTE MANUFACTURERS.
Warerooms No. 758 Broadway.
PIANOS TO LET AND FOR SALE ON INSTALLMENTS.

MASON & HAMLIN'S CABINET ORGANS FOR FAMILIES, CHURCHES AND SCHOOLS—Recognized by the musical profession as greatly superior to Harmoniums, Melodeons and all other small organs. [See our illustrated catalogue for explicit testimony to their superiority, from a majority of the most eminent organists in America.] Prices, $85 to $500 each.

CAUTION TO PURCHASERS.—The great reputation which our Cabinet Organs have obtained, and the extensive demand for them, have induced dealers to advertise, in some cases, quite different instruments as Cabinet Organs, and in others to represent to purchasers that Harmoniums and other reed organs are the same thing. This is not true. The excellences of our Cabinet Organs, which have given them their high reputation, are the result not merely of the superiority of their workmanship, but also, in large measure, of essential differences in construction, which, being patented, cannot be imitated by other makers. From these arise their better quality and volume of tone and unrivaled capacity for expression. Warerooms in New-York, No. 7 Mercer-st.

MASON BROTHERS.

100 NEW AND SECOND-HAND PIANOS, melodeons, Alexandre and cabinet organs to let, and rent allowed if purchased. Monthly payments received for the same. Second-hand pianos at great bargains for cash; price from $60 to $200. New seven-octave pianos, at $225, $250, $275, $300, and up to $700. One seven-octave second-hand grand piano, price $700 new, will be sold for $300, or rented for $10 per month. 10,000 sheets of music, a little soiled, at 1½ cents per page. Cash paid for second-hand pianos. HORACE WATERS, No. 481 Broadway.

NEW MUSIC.—"THE PURE, THE BRIGHT, the Beautiful." "Golden Dreams and Fairy Castles," "When Dear Friends were Here," "Give This to Mother," by FOSTER; "New Emancipation Song," "I'm Willing to Wait," PARKHURST; "My Little Angel," "How goes the Money," HUTCHINSON; "The Dying Soldier Boy," and "My Jamie is a Soldier Brave," WALLACE; 30 cents each, mailed free. Publisher, HORACE WATERS, No. 481 Broadway.

WANTED.—AN ENGLISH LADY, DISTINGUISHED as a pianist and composer, whose musical education was acquired under eminent masters in France, who is thoroughly acquainted with the language and literature of that country, and is besides an accomplished artiste in water-colors, &c., would like to give lessons during the Summer months in exchange for her board. The highest City references given. Address V. C. A., Box No. 123 Times Office.

PIRSSON'S PIANO-FORTES.—JAS. PIRSSON respectfully informs the public that he has reëstablished himself in the piano-forte business and invites attention to a fine stock of pianos at his warerooms, No. 478 Broadway, near Broome-st.

PIANO-FORTE LESSONS.—A YOUNG LADY thoroughly instructed, desires a few more pupils on the piano-forte. Address BRISTOW & HARDENBROOK, Piano-forte Warerooms, No. 147 10th-st., between Broadway and 4th-av.

PIANO-FORTES OF EVERY VARIETY OF style and pattern, warranted of the best material and workmanship, and unsurpassed in strength and delicacy of tone, or elasticity of touch. Apply at manufactory of JAS. VAN RIPER, No. 178 Wooster-st., between Houston and Bleecker sts.

EUROPEAN AFFAIRS.

"France firmly holds to the conviction that the suspension of arms ought to be prolonged, if necessary, even beyond the stipulated period, and thus the neutrals will have full scope to ascertain their own interest in continued tranquillity, and to fasten the consequence upon those whose obstinacy may break it."

The Morning Post says the time must soon come when Prussia and Austria must throw off the mask, and it will then be seen whether the objects which the German Powers have in view are of such a nature as the neutral States can, with safety, permit to be realized.

It is stated that on the 13th the Prussian Government at Wyborg threatened to imprison the Town Supply Committee on Bread and Water, unless supplies were provided forthwith without immediate payment.

A communication from Admiral Tegethoff—the Commander of the Allied Squadron—denies the statement published in several German papers that the British frigate Aurora manœuvred to separate the Austrian frigate Schwarzenberg from the allied squadron. The Aurora remained at anchor off Heligoland until the close of the engagement.

Danish journals assert that, notwithstanding the armistice, the Prussians continued pillaging in Jutland on the 12th and 13th of May. A Copenhagen dispatch announces that the Danish North Sea Squadron arrived at that city on the 15th in an undamaged state. The vessels were greatly cheered by the people, and the King went to board them.

A line-of-battle ship, a frigate and a ram, with two gunboats, (supposed to be an Austrian squadron,) passed Deal on the 15th for the North.

Austrian seamen had been sent to reinforce the crews of the vessels lately engaged with the Danes off Heligoland.

The British Custom-House authorities had issued instructions to Collectors at the various ports not to admit any prizes captured either by Danish or German vessels; and not to allow a vessel of one of the belligerents to be followed to sea until the expiration of at least twenty-four hours.

The Daily News hints that special confidential correspondence between the Cabinets of St. Petersburg, Vienna and Berlin reveals such duplicity on the part of Russia that her action in the Conference becomes gravely suspicious.

The Daily News gives reasons for supposing that a "holy alliance" has really been established between the three Powers.

The Nord denies the statement that the Emperors of Austria and Prussia are about to meet.

The Prince of Augustenburg had entered Altona in the midst of much enthusiasm, and a manifesto in his favor had been issued bearing the signatures of 1,350 members of the different representative bodies of Germany.

FRANCE.

The Paris correspondent of the London Morning Post quotes from the remarks of Mr. Rouher, made in the course of the debate in the Corps Legislatif May 12, a report of which was published in the Times of Saturday, and says:

"To the present day the policy of France toward America remains the same, although its sympathy may be for the cause of the South. In all that may take place on this question, France will follow England. If a recognition of the South were to occur in England, France would immediately echo such a resolution."

The Bey of Tunis is said to have refused to allow the French Admiral to land troops at Tunis. French advices report complete anarchy in Abysinia.

Rumors of probable ministerial changes had been rife, but La France believes itself able to assert that no change will take place, at least during the present session of the Corps Legislatif.

The great Paris poisoning case in which Dr. La Pommerais was charged with poisoning a Madame Panue in order to get the payment of several heavy policies of insurance on her life, terminated on the 17th of May in a verdict of guilty. La Pommerais was condemned to death.

The Paris Bourse on the 17th was without fluctuation. Rentes closed at 66@80.

The workingmen of Turin had held a meeting and voted thanks to the workingmen of England for their reception of Garibaldi.

The belief in an approaching fatal termination of the Pope's malady had greatly increased.

AUSTRIA.

The Paris Moniteur asserts that 30,000 Austrian troops were concentrated on the frontiers of Transylvania and Bukovine.

INDIA.

The Bombay mail to April 29 had arrived at Suez. Cotton had fallen 30 rupees. Cotton goods were quiet but heavy. Shipments of cotton for the fortnight 40,000 bales. Freights to Liverpool 55c. Exchange 2s. 1⅜d.

Calcutta, Thursday, April 8.

Shirtings and Twist dull. Freights falling. Exchange 2s. 1⅛d.

The British Envoy of Boohtan had been publicly insulted by the chiefs of that State, and was subsequently imprisoned and compelled to sign a treaty ceding British Assam to Boohtan.

The steamer Caudia, with mails for Calcutta, had been seriously damaged by a cyclone, on the 29th of April, and had put back to Aden and transferred her mails to a French steamer.

THE BRAZILS.

The French mails had arrived at Lisbon with dates from Rio to April 25. Coffee was quoted at 7,500@7,600 for good firsts. Stock 30,000 bags. Exchange on London 27⅜@½.

Buenos Ayres, Thursday, April 14.

Financial and Commercial.

LONDON MONEY MARKET.

The discount demand at the Bank of England was unimportant, and the belief in an early reduction in the rate gained ground.

The funds on the 17th continued firm and closed at 91⅜@½—and there was no change from these figures to the afternoon of the 18th.

American Securities a shade firmer: Illinois Central, 30@28 dis.; Eries, 54@56.

LIVERPOOL MARKET.

Liverpool, Wednesday, May 18—P. M.

Cotton—The sales of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday add up 17,000 bales, including 5,000 for export and speculation. The market has been quiet, but without any quotable change in prices.

TRADE AT MANCHESTER.

The market yesterday was quiet, owing to the Whitsun holidays, but prices were steadily maintained.

Breadstuffs—Generally dull, owing to the very brilliant weather. Messrs. Wakefield, Nash & Co., Richardson, Spence & Co. report Flour offered at 6d.@1s. decline, without leading to business. Wheat very dull, and generally about 2s. lower; Winter Red, 7s. 8d.@8s. 3d. Corn dull, at 28s. ℔ 480 lbs. for mixed.

Provisions—Beef and Pork neglected, but quotations unchanged. Bacon slow, and partially rather cheaper. Lard unsettled, and again lower. Tallow dull, and prices favoring buyers. Butter dull and nominal.

Produce—Ashes quiet; Pearls, 34s. 6d.; Pots, 32s.@32s. 6d. Sugar steady at full prices. Coffee unchanged. Rice quiet, but steady. Linseed Oil, 40s. 6d.@41s. Resin unaltered. Spirits of Turpentine quiet. Petroleum firm, but quiet; considerable sales of crude on private terms; refined, 2s. 3d.

LONDON MARKETS.

Wheat dull and 1s.@2s. ℔ quarter cheaper. Flour also dull, but hardly cheaper for barrels. Groceries quiet, owing to the holidays. Tea firm. Tallow firmer and dearer; sales of Y. C. at 43s. The Indigo sales closed with fair spirit at full rates. The Wool sales progress at firm rates. Linseed Oil, 33s. 9d.

Liverpool, Thursday, May 19.

Cotton—Sales to-day 8,000 bales, including 3,000 to speculators and exporters. The market quiet at unchanged rates.

Breadstuffs—The market is very dull.

Provisions—Inactive.

Produce—The market is quiet and steady.

London, Thursday, May 19—3 P. M.

Consols closed at 91⅜@91½ for money.

The Bank of England has reduced its rate of discount to 8 ℔ cent.

American Stocks—Illinois Central, 31@29 discount. Erie Railroad, 54@56.

London, Thursday Morning, via Queenstown.

The Times City Article of to-day says it is understood that Wednesday next will be a holiday at the Stock Exchange. There were hardly any applications for discount at the bank yesterday, and little doubt has been entertained that a reduction of the rate of discount will take place to-morrow. In the Stock Exchange, short loans on Government securities have been offered at 6 per cent. All the Stock Markets were very quiet yesterday, and the general absence of business occasioned in most instances a fractional decline. The suspension has been announced of Messrs. James Hurst & Co. merchants, of London and Mauritius. The simple anticipation of a possible reduction of bank rate of interest to 8 per cent. is beginning to cause a renewal of the swarm of prospectuses. One is to introduce a floating telegraph station and ship light company, the stations to be near the ordinary track of vessels, such as the vicinity of the Scilly Islands and of Cape Race, Newfoundland, and at the entrance of the English and Irish Channels. Another company is formed to purchase the shipbuilding establishment and dockyard of Messrs. J. & W Smith, at St. Peters, New-castle-on-Tyne.

CLEVELAND CONVENTION.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

Cleveland, Monday, May 30.

The elements of a half-dozen conventions are manifesting themselves here; one, and probably by far the largest in numbers, favors the nomination of Gen. Fremont. This, with these, is a foregone conclusion. The Teutonic strata entirely controls this wing.

A young man named Cass, "Nephew of my Uncle," who lives in Pennsylvania and has much to do with railroads, is talked of for Vice-President with the Pathfinder.

The men from New-York State, and especially from the vicinity of Albany, are for Grant, and will probably organize themselves into a nominating convention for the purpose of formally presenting his name. They will probably leave to the Chicago Convention the duty of filling in the name of the gentleman who shall be Vice-President.

The consultation people have not yet indicated any programme. The platform of those who will nominate Fremont will be unequivocal. It will proclaim freedom as the birthright of every man; will protest against any reconstruction that yields anything to the owners of slaves; will denounce the violations of individual rights, which it will charge the Administration with having perpetrated; will suggest confiscation as the inevitable sequence of rebellion. All the points will be presented in concise and precise terms.

All the different factions are in ecommunion this evening. But I don't think there will be any change of base from the line I have indicated. I have no one to add to my list of known men who are here, except the name of Ex-Gen. Justus McKensley, and a large show of newspaper men. It is expected that the train, to-morrow morning, will bring some thousands of delegates.

LEO.

ANOTHER DISPATCH.

Cleveland, Ohio, Monday, May 30—11 P. M.

Judging from the number of delegates already in, and those reported on the way, the convention to-morrow will be composed of several hundred delegates.

There are many Missourians in attendance, but the delegations from Illinois, Iowa, Arkansas, Ohio and Pennsylvania, are also large.

Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Kansas, New-York, New-Jersey and Massachusetts, are also represented, but not largely.

The Germans have delegations from twelve States, some of whom held an informal meeting on Sunday, when, after an interchange of views, resolutions were adopted against Lincoln and in favor of Fremont, against the suppression of the press, and in favor of the right of trial by jury, and protesting against any infringement upon this right as destructive of American liberty; also in favor of amending the Constitution to prohibit Slavery, and for the Monroe Doctrine and the one-term principle as absolutely necessary to check corruption.

Apparently none but the delegation of War Democrats from New-York favor the nomination of Grant, with Fremont for Vice-President. They argue that a victory in Virginia next month will secure the indorsement of this ticket at Chicago.

On the other hand, the Fremont men say they want a man whose political record is well defined and known to the country, and who has positive strength. This they claim for their candidate, and profess to believe he is as likely to be indorsed at Chicago as is Gen. Grant.

The indications are that Gen. Grant's name will be withdrawn, and that Fremont will be nominated without opposition.

Several are named for Vice-President, among them Gen. Cochrane, George W. Cass, B. Gratz Brown, Gen. Logan, Gov. Andrew and Gen. Rosecrans. Cochrane is strongest to-night.

The platform will be substantially that adopted by the Germans as indicated above. On the points therein set forth there seems to be no material diversity of opinion.

Comptroller Robinson, of New-York, has written a letter strongly favoring the nomination of Gen. Grant.

Parker Pillsbury brings with him a letter from Wendell Phillips, expressing regret at his inability to attend the convention, complaining that the Administration is a failure, because it has weighed treasure, blood and civil liberty against Slavery, and up to the present moment has decided to exhaust them all before it uses freedom heartily as a means of battle; that if Mr. Lincoln is reelected he must pursue the same policy and obey the same Cabinet. He deprecates the Louisiana reconstruction experiment, and contends that the only plan of reconstruction within twenty years is to admit the blacks to citizenship, and use them with the whites as the basis of States. He closes by favoring the nomination of Fremont or Butler—Fremont being his first choice.

Among those present are Gen. McKinstry and Ex-Gov. W. F. Johnston, of Pennsylvania; Col. Zagoni, Maj. Haskell, Ed. Gilbert McGarrett, Parker Pillsbury, Jasper Thompson, Andrew K. Calvin, Gen. Cochrane, George M. Hopkins, Col. Moss, and a number of prominent Germans from the West.

The scene of the new story, "Haunted Hearts," is laid in New-York and New-Jersey, and is creating considerable interest in those parts. A New-York bookseller ordered one thousand copies which he sold in less than two days. The sale of "The Lamplighter," by the same author, reach 85,000.—Boston Transcript.

DEAFNESS CURED,

Dr. Von Eisenberg.

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH.

No. 23 Forsyth-st., New-York, Oct. 1, 1863.

Dr. Von Eisenberg:

Dear Sir: Without recapitulating the numerous benefits I have received through your wonderful cure of the deafness I have labored under many years, the blessings I enjoy will convince the most skeptical.

I have tried many aurists, in Europe and America, without success. I was still deaf as a post.

Three years ago I entered your office, underwent one operation, hoping, yet doubting, I should receive any relief, but was agreeably disappointed in finding the genius of your profession.

The innate skill you possess cured my deafness in one almost painless operation.

The joy I experienced was indescribable; 'twas a new life to me.

My hearing is perfect to this day.

I strongly advise all who are suffering under a difficulty of hearing, or total deafness, to consult you immediately, as I also personally recommend all who apply to me. The numerous calls trespass on my time and patience, yet, remembering my own long, weary affliction causes me to pity them.

This is not written to advertise your well-known, unrivaled reputation—that would be peurile; but as a measure of precaution, to induce all to call on you at once, without troubling me; yet I do not refuse to see any one who comes to me. This is the only way I can show my gratitude.

I also call the attention of those who are suffering from Catarrh, which disease I have labored under one year or more.

I experienced difficulty in breathing, langour, heaviness over the eyes, a sense of tightness on the brain, and copious expectorations of a hard and viscid nature. Accompanying this is a "polypus," quite filling the right nostril. On the 25th ult. you operated on both, killing the polypus, which is gradually passing away, and giving me great relief from the Catarrh. One more operation will effectually cure.

This testimonial brings with it my unalloyed and grateful thanks, with but a poor delineation of your wondrous skill as an Aurist.

I am, Sir, yours very gratefully,
EDWARD TEMPLE HARRISON.

CABINET ORGANS

CAUTION TO PURCHASERS OF CABINET ORGANS.

The wide demand for our CABINET ORGANS has induced dealers in some cases to advertise quite different instruments as CABINET ORGANS, and in others to represent to purchasers that harmoniums and other reed organs are the same thing. This is not true. The excellences of the CABINET ORGANS which have given them their high reputation, arise not merely from superiority of their workmanship, but also in large measure from essential differences in construction, which being patented by us, cannot be imitated by other makers. From these arise their better quality and volume of tone, and capacity for expression. Every CABINET ORGAN has upon its name board in full, the words "MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGAN." When a dealer represents any other instrument as a Cabinet Organ, it is usually a mere attempt to sell an inferior instrument on which he can make a larger profit. Prices of CABINET ORGANS $95 to $550. Warerooms, No. 274 Washington-st., Boston; MASON & HAMLIN, No. 7 Mercer-st., New-York, MASON BROTHERS.

In The Year 1845

Mr. MATHEWS first prepared the VENETIAN HAIR DYE. Since that time it has been used by thousands, and in no instance has it failed to give entire satisfaction.

The VENETIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world. Its price is only Fifty Cents, and each bottle contains double the quantity of dye in those usually sold for $1.

The VENETIAN DYE is warranted not to injure the hair or the scalp in the slightest degree.

The VENETIAN DYE works with rapidity and certainty, the hair requiring no preparation whatever.

The VENETIAN DYE produces any shade that may be desired—one that will not fade, crock or wash out—one that is as permanent as the hair itself. For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents.

A. I. MATHEWS, General Agent,

DEAFNESS

CATARRH

DISEASES OF THE EYE, EAR AND THROAT.

CROSS EYES STRAIGHTENED WITH BUT LITTLE PAIN IN A FEW MINUTES.

HOURS, 10 A. M. TO 3 P. M.

From Mr. J. L. Goodell.

No. 8 Bennett-st., Boston, May 12, 1864.

D. Rowe—Dear Sir: Having been troubled with Catarrh for a number of years, the effects of which were the loss of smell, dizziness of the head, with a constant heaviness over the eyes, while the passage from the head to the throat was filled up by an accumulation of soft spongy substance, I placed myself under your care. Though but a little over two months since you have been treating me, quite a considerable change has taken place in my health. The dizziness in my head, together with the pressure over my eyes, has entirely gone, my sense of smell has very much improved, and I breathe quite freely through the nose. Although not entirely cured during the short time I have been under your treatment, yet I am quite confident that by following your directions the disease will very soon be effectually removed. Yours respectfully,

J. L. GOODELL.

P. S.—Any one desirous of obtaining any information regarding my case you can refer to my brother-in-law, Mr. S. Sweet, Jr., No. 30 Joralemon-st., Brooklyn.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.

Extract from Dr. Rowe's Treatise on Catarrh.

It produces a feeling of uneasiness, heat and stiffness of the nostrils, which are often closed on one or both sides, caused by the thickening of the membrane from inflammation; soon a thin, watery discharge commences, excoriating that part of the skin with which it comes in contact. If the disease be not checked then, the discharge soon becomes purulent, of a greenish yellow color, sometimes tinged with blood, with an odor more or less disagreeable, and sometimes very offensive. The breath of the patient becomes so revoltingly offensive as to isolate him from society, and render him an object of disgust to himself. The discharge frequently drops down the throat, and has to be hawked up to obtain relief—the senses of smell and taste become greatly impaired, and sometimes entirely lost—a distressing headache makes its appearance as the frontal bone sinuses become involved, and neuralgic pain in the face and head as soon as the other sinuses become affected. At night sleep is often interrupted, a sensation of dryness in the mouth and throat, thirst and feverishness generally being produced. In the morning a coated tongue and a disagreeable taste in the mouth are frequent, as also dizziness. Some persons become very drowsy more especially during the day, after eating. After a time the memory becomes impaired, a restless, nervous feeling accompanying it—seriously affecting a close application to study; in short, a general restlessness of mind. Many are disposed to be costive. If the inflammation extends through the tear passage to the eye and inflames that organ, it causes the tears to overflow upon the slightest irritation or exposure, producing what is commonly called "Weeping Eye." If it extends through the Eustachian tubes to the middle ear, the hearing becomes more or less impaired; if it extends down the throat it gives rise to dyspepsia, bronchitis, and to Consumption. The experience and investigations of the greatest savans in medical science have established the fact that in fully two-thirds of the cases of consumption it commenced by inflammation and ulceration of the air passages. It must be remembered that the best and only cure of consumption is its prevention.

CATARRH CURED.

From Mr. Charles Lockitt.

Brooklyn, April 8, 1864.

I wish to add my testimony in favor of Dr. Rowe's method of treatment of catarrh.

CHAS. LOCKITT, No. 231 Fulton-st., Brooklyn.

We, the undersigned, feeling that we have been greatly benefitted by Dr. Rowe, in his treatment for catarrh, and believing it to be the most practicable method of treatment, recommend those similarly afflicted to his care:

REMARKS ON THE CURE OF DEAFNESS AND DISCHARGES FROM THE EAR.

It can safely be said that there is no case of discharges of the ear but what can be entirely and permanently cured; and in most cases the hearing can be either entirely cured or remarkably benefited. Like all diseases, there are some cases of deafness that cannot even be benefited [illegible] be entirely cured or remarkably benefited. It can always be [illegible] checked and prevented from growing worse. [illegible]

CAUTION TO PARENTS.

Parents are apt to think that their children will outgrow discharges from their ears or catarrhal affections. Never were they laboring under a greater mistake. [illegible] the membrana tympani or drumhead has been checked, [illegible] your offspring [illegible] to run such a risk! [illegible]

DR. W. R. MERWIN & CO.'S COLUMN

For the

CHEROKEE MEDICINES.

Compounded from Roots, Barks and Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the Urinary organs, such as incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

CHEROKEE INJECTION OR WASH is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unbearable pain that is experienced with nearly all cheap quack injections. By the use of the Cherokee Remedy and Cherokee Injection—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed in male or female.

CHEROKEE CURE! An unfailing cure for Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, and all diseases caused by self-abuse, such as loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pains in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, Weak Nerves, Difficulty of Breathing, Trembling, Wakefulness, Eruptions, Pale Countenance, Insanity, Consumption, and all the direful complaints caused by departing from the path of nature.

This medicine is a simple vegetable extract, and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated, it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to subdue the most stubborn cases.

To those who have trifled with their constitution until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, Despair not! The Cherokee Cure will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed.

DR. WRIGHT'S REJUVENATING ELIXIR, OR ESSENCE OF LIFE.

This medicine is the result of modern discoveries in the vegetable kingdom, and is entirely new and different from any preparation known for the class of diseases for which this is intended. It contains no minerals. It is one of the greatest restoratives for the poor, debilitated, worn-down and despairing devotees of pleasure ever discovered. It will restore to manly health and full power those who have become satiated in the gardens of pleasure, and cause their appetites to again thrill for the luxuries of life.

This ELIXIR cures Hysteria, General Debility, Palpitation of the Heart and Impotency. It restores mental power and the appetite, and causes the rose to mount the cheek of paler, and the debilitated man of woman to feel vigorous and strong, the young and ambitious blood to course through every vein, the nerves to become strong, and the fires of new life and vigor to reanimate the entire body, building up the constitution, restoring life and life to many a sad and darkened fireside.

CHEROKEE PILLS.

FEMALE REGULATOR.

Compounded from pure vegetable extracts and coated with the best white sugar—as easy and delicious to take as sugar candy—these "Pills" are intended to remove obstructions, and to insure regularity in the occurrence of the monthly periods.

By bringing on and regulating the monthly periods, they effectually cure all diseases and effects brought on by suppression, or those caused by the deranged female organs.

They cure Nervous and Spinal Affections, pains in the back and lower parts of the body, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysteria, Sick Headache, Giddiness, &c., &c. In a word, by removing the irregularity, they remove the cause, and with it all the effects that spring from it. Composed of simple vegetable extracts, they contain nothing deleterious to any constitution, however delicate.

Ladies or gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, and we will in all cases frankly answer their letters, and give our opinion of each individual case. We prescribe no minerals.

Patients living at a distance need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us. We have treated successfully the afflicted in all portions of the world, by correspondence.

Parties addressing us should state the disease and symptoms, and the full particulars in regard to their cases, in order to give a full knowledge of their complaints, and, unless a cure is possible, we will not hold out inducements to them in order to sell our medicine.

We wish all to distinctly understand that our preparations are not quack nostrums. We do not fill a quart bottle with worthless trash and sell it for a dollar. We do not claim that our medicines are for every ill that flesh is heir to, nor ever placed before the public, and that they have real intrinsic worth, and will positively cure. That they will cure the diseases for which we recommend them we can prove by thorough trial and by others. One trial will convince the most skeptical.

The CHEROKEE MEDICINES are sold by all enterprising druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these—those which they can get at a cheap price and make more money by selling than they can on the Cherokee Medicines. As you value your health—aye, the health of your offspring—do not be deceived by such unprincipled druggists.

If the druggists will not buy them for you, write to us, and we will send them to you by express, securely packed. For full particulars inquire of your nearest druggist for our thirty-two page pamphlet. If you are unable to procure it from them, write us, inclosing postage stamps, and we will send it to you in a securely sealed envelope, free from observation.

All letters asking advice or ordering our medicines, will meet with prompt attention.
